

Right Hon. Mr. Coates.

INDUSTRIAL CONCILIATION AND ARBITRATION AMENDMENT.

ANALYSIS.

Title.
1. Short Title.

2. No award relating to farming or to the manufacture of butter, cheese, &c., to be made before 1st September, 1929, without consent of parties.
3. Repeal.

A BILL INTITULED

AN ACT to amend the Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Act, 1925. Title.

BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. This Act may be cited as the Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Amendment Act, 1928, and shall be read together with and deemed part of the Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Act, 1925 (hereinafter referred to as the principal Act). Short Title.

2. (1) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the principal Act, no award relating to any agricultural, pastoral, or dairying operations, or to any other work effected on a farm, or to the manufacture or production of butter, cheese, or other products of milk, or to persons engaged (whether as employers or workers) on a farm or in such manufacture or production shall be made at any time before the first day of September, nineteen hundred and twenty-nine, unless the Court is satisfied that all the parties thereto have agreed to the making of such award. No award relating to farming or to the manufacture of butter, cheese, &c., to be made before 1st September, 1929, without consent of parties.

(2) Nothing in the last preceding subsection shall operate in any manner to terminate any award in force on the passing of this Act, and every such award shall continue in force as if this section had not been passed.

(3) No award to which the foregoing provisions of this section relate shall be in any manner amended or extended by the Court before the said first day of September, nineteen hundred and twenty-nine, without the consent of all the parties thereto, and, in the case of an extension of any such award, without the consent of all industrial unions, industrial associations, or employers added by the Court as parties thereto.

3. The Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Amendment Act, 1927, is hereby repealed. Repeal.