INDUSTRIAL CONCILIATION AND ARBITRATION AMEND-MENT (No. 2).

ANALYSIS.

Title.	2. An award or agreement under principal Act may prescribe method for fixing wages to be payable over a period of five years.
1. Short Title.

A BILL INTITULED

AN ACT to amend the Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Act, 1925. Title.

5 BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. This Act may be cited as the Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Amendment Act, 1928 (No. 2), and shall be read together with and deemed part of the Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Act, 1925 (hereinafter referred to as the principal Act). Short Title.

2. (1) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the principal Act limiting the term for which an industrial agreement or an award may be made thereunder, the parties to any such agreement or, in the case of an award, the Court with the consent of all the parties thereto, may include in any such agreement or award provisions fixing for a period not exceeding five years a basis or method for the calculation of wages to be payable in the industry or industries to which the agreement or award relates. An award or agreement under principal Act may prescribe method for fixing wages to be payable over a period of five years.

(2) The powers conferred by the last preceding subsection shall extend to authorize the amendment, subject to the same conditions, of any industrial agreement or award for the time being in force.

(3) In so far as any industrial agreement or award to which this section relates provides for matters other than the method of calculating wages as aforesaid, it shall continue in force as if this Act had not been passed, but no longer.

By Authority: W. A. G. SKINNER, Government Printer, Wellington.—1928.
