A BILL INTITULED

AN ACT to amend "The Industrial Schools Act, 1882."

Title.

BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

5 1. The Short Title of this Act is "The Industrial Schools Act Amendment Act, 1887." Short Title.

2. No imprisonment suffered by any person in consequence of the failure to comply with any order for maintenance made under the provisions of "The Industrial Schools Act, 1882," or any amendments thereof, shall operate as an extinguishment of the debt or liability in respect of which such order was made; and, in any subsequent proceedings against any such person in respect of such debt or liability, the costs and expenses of any previous orders or warrants made or issued in connection therewith, including the expenses of conveying such person to or from the place of hearing, may be recovered in the same manner as if such costs and expenses had formed part of the original debt or liability, and may be added thereto. Imprisonment not to satisfy debt for maintenance.

3. Section two of "The Hospitals and Charitable Institutions Act, 1885," and section three of "The Hospitals and Charitable Institutions Act 1885 Amendment Act, 1886," are hereby amended as follows:— Neglected children as well as poor children may be sent to institutions.

20 The words "subsection one of section sixteen" appearing in the first proviso to the first-mentioned section, and also in the second line of the said section three, shall be deemed to be omitted therefrom respectively, and the words "subsection one or subsection three 30 of section sixteen" shall henceforth be read as substituted in lieu thereof; and the words "by reason of having no means of subsistence or of the indigent circumstances of its parent" shall henceforth be omitted from the said proviso.
