A BILL INTITULED

AN ACT to exempt the Property known as the Kensington Park Estate, situated in the Borough of Whangarei, from Municipal Rates.

5 WHEREAS the property known as the Kensington Park Estate, situated in the Borough of Whangarei, and being parts of Allotments Nos. 1 and 2 of the Parish of Whangarei and County of Marsden, is now vested in the Whangarei Agricultural and Pastoral Society, registered under "The Agricultural and Pastoral Societies Act, 1877," and was purchased out of moneys subscribed by the general public and by funds contributed by the Defence Department of the Colony of New Zealand, and for this and various other reasons it is desirous that the said property should be exempted from payment of all rates and taxes levied and made made and levied by the Borough of Whangarei, within which the said property is wholly situate:

BE IT THEREFORE ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

20 1. The Short Title of this Act is "The Kensington Park Rate Exemption Act, 1906."

25 2. The property known as the Kensington Park Estate, situated within the Borough of Whangarei, and being parts of Allotments 1 and 2 of the Parish of Whangarei, County of Marsden, shall be and is hereby declared exempt from payment of all rates and taxes made or and levied by the body corporate known as the Mayor, Councillors, and Burgesses Council of the Borough of Whangarei; such exemption to relate back to the first day of April, one thousand nine hundred and six; and thereafter no rate or tax shall be made, levied, or collected
30 by the said body corporate Council in respect of the said property.

By Authority: JOHN MACKAY, Government Printer, Wellington. —1906.
