

LEGISLATURE AMENDMENT BILL

EXPLANATORY NOTE

THIS Bill repeals the provisions of the Legislature Act, 1908, which relate to private Bills.

New Standing Orders of the House of Representatives will replace the repealed provisions in so far as they relate to the fees to be paid for the benefit of the Library Fund by the promoters of private Bills, and in so far as they relate to inquiries into private Bills (which will be conducted by a Committee of the House).

The provisions of the principal Act as to inquiries into private estate Bills by the Supreme Court, and as to costs as between the promoters and opponents of Bills, have become obsolete and grown into disuse, and will accordingly be allowed to drop.

Right Hon. Mr. Holland
