A BILL INTITULED

An Act to amend the Land Act 1948

5 BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1. Short Title—This Act may be cited as the Land Amendment Act 1977, and shall be read together with and deemed part of the Land Act 1948* (hereinafter referred to as the principal Act).
- 10 2. Delegation of powers by Minister—The principal Act is hereby amended by inserting, after section 11, the following section:
- 15 “11A. (1) Subject to the provisions of any other Act relating to the delegation of the Minister’s powers under that Act, the Minister may from time to time, by writing under his hand, either generally or particularly, delegate to any officer or officers of the Department all or any of the powers exercisable by him as Minister under any enactment including powers delegated to him under any enactment, but not including 20 the power to delegate under this section.

“(2) Subject to any general or special directions given or conditions attached by the Minister, an officer to whom any powers are delegated under this section may exercise those powers in the same manner and with the same effect as if they had been conferred on him directly by this section and not by delegation. 5

“(3) Until a delegation made under this section is revoked, it shall continue in force according to its tenor; and, in the event of the Minister by whom any such delegation has been made ceasing to hold office, the delegation shall continue to have effect as if made by the person for the time being holding office as Minister. 10

“(4) In the event of an officer to whom a delegation under this section has been made ceasing to hold the office that he held when the delegation was made, the delegation shall continue to have effect as if made to the person for the time being holding that office or, if there is no person holding that office, to the person (if any) for the time being authorised to exercise the powers of the holder of that office. 15

“(5) The fact that an officer of the Department exercises any power of the Minister shall, in the absence of proof to the contrary, be sufficient evidence that he has been authorised to do so by a delegation under this section. 20

“(6) Every delegation made under this section shall be revocable at will, and no such delegation shall prevent the exercise of any power by the Minister.” 25

3. Leases of private land—(1) The principal Act is hereby amended by inserting, after section 40, the following section:

“40A. (1) The Board, on behalf of Her Majesty, may, with the approval of the Minister, lease from any person any private land for use in conjunction with Crown land. 30

“(2) Any such lease may be entered into on such terms and conditions as the Board thinks fit:

Provided that, before entering into the lease, the Board shall ascertain, by report and valuation by at least one competent valuer and by such other means as the Board thinks fit, the value of the land and its suitability for the use proposed in respect thereof. 35

“(3) On the approval of the Minister being given to a proposal to lease private land pursuant to this section, the Board may execute all agreements, deeds, and instruments and do and perform all acts necessary to obtain the lease. 40

“(4) Where any private land is leased to the Board pursuant to this section, the Board shall, subject to the terms and conditions of the lease, have the powers in respect of the land that it would have if the land were Crown land.”

5 (2) Section 28 (1) of the principal Act is hereby consequentially amended by inserting, after paragraph (a), the following paragraph:

“(aa) In payment of the rental and other expenses relating to any lease of private land entered into by the Board pursuant to section 40A of this Act:”

10 (3) Section 42 of the principal Act (as substituted by section 3 (1) of the Land Amendment Act 1954) is hereby consequentially amended by adding the following subsection:

“(6) The foregoing provisions of this section shall not apply in respect of any private land leased by the Board pursuant to section 40A of this Act.”

4. Cropping of pastoral lands—(1) Section 108 of the principal Act is hereby amended by repealing subsection (2), and substituting the following subsections:

20 Struck Out
~~“(1A) A lessee or licensee of pastoral land may, with the prior consent in writing of the Board, given subject to such conditions as it may deem necessary, cultivate any portion of the land comprised in his lease or licence for the purpose of growing crops for sale.”~~
