A BILL INTITULED

AN ACT to amend the Local Elections and Polls Act, 1908.

Title.

BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. This Act may be cited as the Local Elections and Polls Amendment Act, 1914, and shall form part of and be read together with the Local Elections and Polls Act, 1908 (hereinafter referred to as the principal Act).

Short Title.

2. (1.) Before giving any voting-paper to a voter the Returning Officer or Deputy Returning Officer shall enter on both the counterfoil and the back of the voting-paper a number (called a consecutive number) beginning with the number one in the case of the first voting-paper issued by him, and on all succeeding voting-papers issued by him the numbers shall be consecutive, so that no two voting-papers issued in any booth shall bear the same number; on the counterfoil of the voting-paper he shall also write his initials, and the number appearing on the roll against the name of the elector to whom the voting-paper is to be given; on both the counterfoil and the back of the voting-paper he shall place his official mark, and then draw a line in pencil or ink through the number and name of the voter on the roll as evidence that the voter has applied for and has received a voting-paper.

Voting-paper to be officially marked.

(2.) At elections where any voter is entitled to give more than one vote the Returning Officer or Deputy Returning Officer shall also write on the roll against the name of the voter a number denoting the number of voting-papers given to him.

(3.) Every Returning Officer or Deputy Returning Officer who fails faithfully to perform any duty imposed on him by this section, by reason whereof any of the requirements of this section are not effectively fulfilled, is liable to a fine of ten pounds.

Repeal.

(4.) This section is in substitution for section twenty-three of the principal Act, and that section is hereby accordingly repealed.

(5.) The voting-papers at elections and polls under the principal Act shall have printed on the counterfoil and back thereof respectively the matter contained in the Schedule hereto, and the forms numbered (5) and (6) of the Second Schedule to the principal Act are hereby amended accordingly. 5

Preliminary count of the votes.

3. (1.) Every Deputy Returning Officer, at the polling-place at which he presides, shall, as soon as practicable after the close of the poll, make up into a parcel the copy of the roll supplied to him on which the fact of any person having received a voting-paper has been noted, together with all the counterfoils of voting-papers that have been issued to voters, and such parcel shall be sealed by the Deputy Returning Officer and by such scrutineers as are present and desire to do so. 10 15

(2.) The Deputy Returning Officer shall then in the presence of such of the scrutineers as choose to be present, and the poll-clerks (if any), but of no other person, open the ballot-boxes, and, taking therefrom all the voting-papers therein, and setting aside as informal all voting-papers which do not clearly indicate the candidate or candidates for whom the voter desired to vote, shall proceed to ascertain the number of votes recorded for each candidate. 20

(3.) Immediately after ascertaining the number of votes recorded for each candidate, the Deputy Returning Officer shall announce the result of the voting at the polling-place at which he presides, and shall forthwith send the said numbers to the Returning Officer, who shall make up and provisionally announce the whole number of votes received by each candidate at the election. 25

Repeals.

(4.) This section is in substitution for section twenty-six of the principal Act, and that section and also section five of the Local Elections and Polls Amendment Act, 1913, are hereby accordingly repealed. 30
