A BILL INTITULED

AN ACT to amend "The Land for Settlements Consolidation Act, 1900." Title.

BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. The Short Title of this Act is "The Land for Settlements Amendment Act, 1901"; and it shall form part of and be read together with "The Land for Settlements Consolidation Act, 1900" (hereinafter called "the principal Act").

Short Title.

2. In any case where, prior to the commencement of "The Land for Settlements Act Amendment Act, 1896," land has been leased at a rental computed on the capital value of the land plus buildings, the lessee may, with the consent of the Minister, surrender his outstanding lease and obtain in lieu thereof a fresh lease under section fifty-four of the principal Act, and the rental and other payments under such new lease shall be computed in like manner as if the land was being disposed of by way of lease under that section.

Section 54 of principal Act retroactive.

3. The powers conferred upon the Minister by section sixty-five of the principal Act shall be deemed to include the power to construct, or to join with any person or local authority or with the Crown in constructing, roads, bridges, drainage-works and river-protection works, and such other works upon or in respect of land acquired under the principal Act as the Minister thinks expedient in order to facilitate the proper settlement of the land or to protect it from injury from floods, river encroachment, or otherwise, or to agree with any local authority for the construction by such local authority of any such works upon such terms and conditions as the Minister thinks fit, and the provisions of that section shall extend and apply accordingly.

Extension of Minister's powers.

Payments out of Land for Settlements Account.

4. The expenses incident to the administration of the principal Act and this Act (including the expenses incurred by the Minister in advertising lands for disposal) shall be payable out of the Land for Settlements Account, and, except where otherwise specially provided, shall be so payable without further appropriation than this Act. 5

Further procedure on compulsory taking of land.

5. (1.) In any proceedings under section fifteen of the principal Act for the compulsory taking of land the claimant shall, not later than twenty-one days after service of the claim for compensation, file in the office of the Supreme Court in the district within which the land proposed to be taken is situate, or, if there are more than one such offices, then in the office nearest to the land,— 10

(a.) A copy of the claim ; and

(b.) A notice stating the name and address of the person he appoints to act as his Assessor ; and shall serve a copy of such notice on the Minister. 15

(2.) Within twenty-one days after receiving the notice of the appointment of the claimant's Assessor the Minister shall also file in the office of the said Court a notice stating the name and address of the person he appoints to act as his Assessor, and shall serve a copy of such notice on the claimant. 20

(3.) If the claimant makes default in making or serving his claim, or if the claimant or the Minister makes default in appointing an Assessor, or in doing any other act, matter, or thing by the principal Act or by this Act required or directed to be done, then, on summary application in that behalf by the party not in default, the Chief Justice may, on such terms as to costs and otherwise as he thinks fit, appoint an Assessor, or give such directions and make such orders as in his opinion are necessary or expedient to enable the claim to be heard and determined by the Compensation Court, and, if the default consists of not making or serving the claim, to enable the order referred to in subsection one of section twenty-two of the principal Act to be made and acted upon in the absence of the claim as fully and effectually as if the claim were properly before the Court. 25 30 35

(4.) In applying the provisions of section forty of "The Public Works Act, 1894," it shall not be necessary for the Minister to offer the amount of compensation in the matter.

Preventing evasion of the Act.

6. (1.) In order to prevent any evasion or avoidance of the provisions of the principal Act as to the right of the owner to select and retain any limited part of any estate intended to be acquired under that section, it is hereby declared that the area of the whole estate shall be computed as at the commencement of the negotiations for the purchase under the said Act, and no subsequent disposition of the estate, or any part thereof, shall operate to defeat the power of the Governor to acquire the land under that Act. 40 45

(2.) The date at which negotiations for the purchase shall be deemed to commence shall in each case be determined by the Governor in Council.

Land may be purchased at auction.

7. Where the Board has recommended the acquisition of any land, it shall be lawful for the Minister, or any person appointed by him in that behalf, to purchase that land for the purposes of the principal Act at any auction sale: 50

Provided that the purchase-money shall not in any case exceed the amount recommended by the Board.

8. In disposing of land by way of lease the Board shall, unless directed to the contrary by the Minister, give preference to married
5 men with families provided they are landless, and the provisions of section forty-nine of the principal Act are hereby modified accordingly.

Married men with families to have preference.

9. (1.) The Governor may from time to time make regulations
10 prescribing the procedure and forms to be used in making and disposing of claims for compensation in respect of the compulsory taking of land, and for that purpose modifying the provisions of "The Public Works Act, 1894," in its application to such claims.

Regulations.

(2.) All regulations heretofore made, or purporting to be made, under the principal Act shall be deemed to be as valid as if they had been made under this Act.
