

A BILL INTITULED

AN ACT to amend "The Law Practitioners Act 1861." Title.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend "The Law Practitioners Act 1861" Preamble.

BE IT THEREFORE ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled and by the authority of the same as follows—

1. The Short Title of this Act shall be "The Law Practitioners Act Amendment Act 1868." Short Title.

2. Where by "The Law Practitioners Act 1861" any penalty is imposed for any offence against any of the provisions thereof and no specific mode of proceeding for the recovery thereof is set forth in or provided by the said Act the same may be recovered in any Court of competent jurisdiction by any person who shall sue for the same. Penalties how recovered.

3. No person shall be admitted or enrolled either as a barrister or solicitor of the Supreme Court of New Zealand unless such person shall have resided within the Colony for a period of not less than two calendar months next before his admission or enrolment and have given notice in writing to the Registrar or Deputy-Registrar of the Supreme Court for the district within which he shall for the time being reside of his intention to apply to be admitted or enrolled as aforesaid not less than one calendar month previously to his application to be admitted or enrolled. Residence prior to admission.