A BILL INTITULED

AN ACT to amend the Mining Act, 1926.

BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority 5 of the same, as follows:-

1. This Act may be cited as the Mining Amendment Short Title. Act, 1947, and shall be read together with and deemed part of the Mining Act, 1926 (hereinafter referred to See Reprint as the principal Act).

10 2. (1) For the purpose of consolidating the licences for adjoining claims of any description granted or acquired under this Act or any former Mining Act, any two or more of such claims that are duly registered may with the consent of the Minister, on application

15 being made to the Warden in accordance with this section, be amalgamated into one claim in the prescribed manner and subject to the prescribed conditions:

No. 68-2

Title.

of Statutes, Vol. V, p. 943

Consolidation of licences for adjoining claims.

Provided that the total area of the amalgamated claim shall not exceed the maximum area prescribed for a special claim of the same description.

(2) Every application for amalgamation shall be made in the prescribed manner, and shall specify or identify the area, boundaries, dimensions, situation, and name of the existing claims to be amalgamated, and the nature of the titles under which they are held, and also the area, boundaries, dimensions, and situation of the proposed amalgamated claim. 10

 $\mathbf{5}$

(3) The ground, if already marked out or surveyed for the purposes of the existing claims, shall be deemed to be marked out or surveyed for the purposes of the application:

Provided that the Warden may direct a new 15 marking-out or survey to be made if he thinks fit.

(4) Before granting the application the Warden shall, in addition to being satisfied as to all other necessary matters, be satisfied-

- (a) That the titles to the claims to be amalgamated 20 are validly subsisting and are neither abandoned by operation of law nor liable to forfeiture:
- (b) That no proceedings are pending in respect of such abandonment or forfeiture as aforesaid: 25
- (c) That all sums owing to His Majesty under the said titles in respect of rent, fees, royalties, penalties, or otherwise are fully paid up to the date of the amalgamation.

(5) Simultaneously with the grant of the licence for 30the amalgamated claim the titles for the claims that are being amalgamated shall be deemed to be surrendered.

(6) Subject to the foregoing provisions of this section, a licence granted for an amalgamated claim shall be granted for the same term and subject to the 35 same fees, rent, royalty, and other payments, and to the same provisions and conditions, as in the case of a licence granted under the principal Act pursuant to original application:

Provided that rent shall be payable in respect of the several areas of the claims amalgamated under this section in all respects as if those claims were not amalgamated but were held under mining privileges 5 continuing for the term of the licence for the amalgamated claim.

3. The provisions of the last preceding section shall, so far as applicable and with the necessary modifications, apply with respect to alluvial or dredging claims 10 that are not adjoining claims:

Provided that no such claim shall be amalgamated with another under this section unless the distance between the nearest boundaries of the claims to be amalgamated does not exceed sixteen miles in the case

15 of dredging claims, or half a mile in the case of alluvial claims of any other description, or such greater distance in either case as the Minister approves.

4. (1) The last two preceding sections are in substi- Consequential tution for section one hundred and fifty-nine of the 20 principal Act, and that section is hereby accordingly repealed.
