A BILL INTITULED

AN ACT to amend "The Municipal Corporations Act, 1900." Title.
BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :—

1. The Short Title of this Act is "The Municipal Corporations Amendment Act, 1902"; and it shall form part of and be read together with "The Municipal Corporations Act, 1900" (hereinafter called "the principal Act"). Short Title.
2. Section three of the principal Act is hereby amended by repealing subsection seven thereof. Section 3 amended.
3. (1.) It shall not hereafter be necessary for the Town Clerk to make out annually a district electors list or roll, but such list and roll shall be made out on or before the fifth day of March in every year in which a general election of the Council is to be held. District electors roll.
- (2.) All corrections and additions required to be made after the completion of the district electors roll shall be made on a supplementary district electors list, which shall be corrected, completed, and authenticated in the same manner as in the case of the district electors roll, and thereupon shall become a supplementary district electors roll, and shall form part of the district electors roll. Supplementary roll.

Section 13 of principal Act
amended.

4. Subsection one of section thirteen of the principal Act (relating to the qualification of electors) is hereby amended by repealing the words "rate-book" in paragraph (b) thereof, and substituting in lieu thereof the words "valuation roll":

Provided that in the case of transfers of property the valuation-roll may be corrected at any time. 5

Combined roll.

5. For the purposes of any election or proposal to be submitted to all the electors of a divided borough, the rolls of the several wards shall together be the combined roll required by section twenty-one of the principal Act. 10

Section 48 of principal Act
amended.

6. Section forty-eight of the principal Act is hereby amended by adding to subsection one thereof the following paragraph:—

(c.) In the case of a united borough not divided into wards, of not less than twelve nor more than twenty-one Councillors, exclusive of the Mayor. 15

Minutes of proceedings to be evidence.

7. (1.) The minutes of the proceedings of the Council or of any committee, duly entered and authenticated as prescribed by the by-laws of the Council made under section seventy-six of the principal Act, shall be prima facie evidence of such proceedings and of the validity thereof. 20

Repeal.

(2.) Subsection ten of section seventy-six of the principal Act is hereby repealed.

Amendment of principal Act as to subsidy.

8. Section eighty-nine of the principal Act (relating to the payment of subsidy) is hereby amended,—

(a.) By repealing the words "same year" in subsection one thereof, and substituting in lieu thereof the words "following year"; and 25

(b.) By adding at the end of the same subsection the following provisoes:—

Provided that subsidy shall not be payable on any amount exceeding the sum which would be collectible from a rate of three-farthings in the pound on the capital value, where the rate is levied on the capital or unimproved value of the rateable property in the borough; or of one shilling in the pound on the annual value, where the rate is levied on the annual value: 30

Provided also that subsidy shall not be payable on any part of such general rates expended in contributing to the funds of any other local authority not receiving subsidy under "The Local Bodies' Finance and Powers Act, 1885," or the principal Act. 35

principal Act
amended.

9. Section ninety-eight of the principal Act is hereby amended by inserting, after the words "or of any ward," the words "or defined portion," and by repealing the words "or wards," and substituting in lieu thereof the words "or portion." 40

The District Fund Account.

10. (1.) All moneys raised by special loan shall be paid into a separate account at the bank for each loan, which account shall be named according to the description of the loan. 45

(2.) All other moneys belonging to the District Fund shall be paid into an account at the bank to be called "The District Fund Account."

Repeal.

(3.) This section is in substitution for subsection two of section ninety-one and section ninety-two of the principal Act, which subsection and section are hereby accordingly repealed. 50

11. Where the Council, under section one hundred and eight of the principal Act, levies an annual fee in lieu of a sanitary rate, such fee shall be recoverable as a rate, and shall form part of the District Fund.

Sanitary fee recoverable as a rate.

5 12. Sections one hundred and twenty to one hundred and fifty-three and the Fifth Schedule of the principal Act (relating to special loans) are hereby repealed :

Repeal.

Provided that all proceedings commenced under the repealed sections prior to the passing of this Act may be continued and 10 completed under those sections.

13. (1.) Section one hundred and fifty-nine of the principal Act (limiting the amount of unauthorised expenditure) is hereby amended by repealing the words "moneys to the credit of."

Section 159 of principal Act amended.

(2.) This section shall be deemed to have had effect as from the 15 commencement of the principal Act.

(3.) Section three of "The Public Revenues Act, 1893," is hereby amended by repealing the words "Borough Council."

Section 3 of Public Revenues Act, 1893, amended.

14. For the purposes of section one hundred and seventy-five of the principal Act, the term "district electors," and for the purposes of section one hundred and seventy-six of the same Act the term "electors," are hereby declared to mean and include all persons who are entitled to vote at the election of a member of any local authority within the area to which those sections respectively relate.

Section 175, &c., of principal Act explained.

25 15. (1.) No petition for the union of any two or more boroughs shall be presented to the Governor under section one hundred and seventy-seven of the principal Act until after a poll of the electors of at least one of such boroughs has been taken on the proposal that such boroughs shall be constituted one united borough.

Petition for constitution of united borough.

30 (2.) The poll may be taken in pursuance of a special order of the Council of any such borough, and shall be taken within thirty days after the presentation to any such Council of a request in writing, that a poll be taken signed by not less than ten per centum of the electors of such borough.

35 (3.) If the result of the poll is in favour of the proposal, but not otherwise, a petition shall, within thirty days after the taking of the poll, be presented to the Governor by the Council of the borough in which the poll was taken, praying that such boroughs be constituted one united borough.

40 (4.) All valuation-rolls, electors lists, electors rolls, and rate-books in force in the boroughs forming any united borough, on the issue of any Proclamation under the said section one hundred and seventy-seven, shall continue in force in the united borough until new valuation-rolls and electors lists and rolls and rate-books respectively are made for such united borough under the principal Act.

45 (5.) Subsections two and four of the said section one hundred and seventy-seven are hereby repealed, and subsection one of the same section is hereby amended by repealing the words "adjoining each other and."

Section 236 of principal Act amended.

25. The powers conferred on the Council by section three hundred and fifty of the principal Act as to ruinous buildings may be exercised in the case of a wall or fence, whether forming part of a building or not, and also in the case of a building in such a condition as to be dangerous to the persons residing therein.

Power to pull down ruinous wall.

26. Sections three hundred and fifty-five and three hundred and fifty-seven of the principal Act are hereby extended to include any physical training-school, gymnasium, or Trades Hall not conducted for the purpose of private profit, and the Council may maintain or otherwise aid any institution referred to in the said sections or this section by money or grant or lease of land.

Extension of sections 355 and 357 in regard to gymnasium, &c.

27. (1.) Every person who erects a new dwellinghouse in a borough shall provide at the side or in the rear thereof an open space exclusively belonging to such dwellinghouse, and of an extent of not less than three hundred superficial feet.

Open space to be provided for every dwellinghouse.

(2.) Such open space shall extend throughout the entire width, or, in the alternative, throughout the entire depth of the site, and shall be free from any erection thereon above the level of the ground.

(3.) The minimum distance across such open space from every part of the dwellinghouse, and from every part of any wash-house, shed, convenience, or other erection attached thereto shall be as follows:—

- (a.) If the height of the dwellinghouse does not exceed fifteen feet Fifteen feet.
- (b.) If the height exceeds fifteen feet but does not exceed twenty-five feet Twenty feet.
- (c.) If the height exceeds twenty-five feet but does not exceed thirty-five feet Twenty-five feet.
- (d.) If the height exceeds thirty-five feet Thirty feet.

(4.) The height of a dwellinghouse shall, for the purposes of this section, be measured from the average level of the ground immediately adjoining the side or the rear of such dwellinghouse, as the case may be, to the level of half the vertical height of the roof, or to the top of the parapet, whichever is the higher.

(5.) Where any alteration or addition is made to any dwellinghouse (whether erected before the commencement of this Act or not) the open space attached to such dwellinghouse shall not be diminished by such alteration or addition so as to leave a lesser area than is required by this section to be provided.

(6.) The erection of a dwellinghouse upon vacant land or upon a site previously occupied by any building, or the re-erection of any dwellinghouse pulled down to within one foot of the ground floor, or the conversion into a dwellinghouse of any building not originally constructed for human habitation, or the conversion into more than one dwellinghouse of a building originally constructed as one dwellinghouse only, or an addition or raising of an existing dwellinghouse (so far as such addition or raising is concerned) shall be deemed to be the erection of a new dwellinghouse within the meaning of this section.

(7.) The ground upon which any dwellinghouse is erected, together with the whole curtilage thereof enclosed within the boundary fences, walls, or lines of the premises, shall be deemed to be the site of such dwellinghouse within the meaning of this section.

(8.) This section is in substitution for the provisions of subsection one of section three hundred and fifty-two of the principal Act, and that subsection is hereby accordingly repealed.

Section 352
restricted.

28. (1.) Subsections two to ten of the said section three hundred and fifty-two shall apply only to lodginghouses and hotels, and houses occupied by more than one family, but except as aforesaid the provisions of the said section three hundred and fifty-two shall not apply to hotels.

(2.) Subsection eleven of section three hundred and fifty-two of the principal Act is hereby repealed.

Places of public worship to be licensed.

29. The provisions of section three hundred and sixty-two of the principal Act (relating to the licensing of public buildings) and of the Thirteenth Schedule thereto shall apply to all buildings used for purposes of public worship, except that no license fee shall be payable in respect of any building exclusively used for such purposes.

Appointment of medical officers.

30. The Council may, if it thinks fit, from time to time appoint a duly qualified medical practitioner as medical officer, at such remuneration and with such duties as the Council prescribes.

Twelfth Schedule
amended.

31. The Twelfth Schedule to the principal Act (relating to the powers of the Council as to unhealthy or ruinous buildings) is hereby amended by repealing the words, "named in such notice," in clause three thereof, and substituting in lieu thereof the words, "named in such order."

Section 406
amended.

32. Section four hundred and six of the principal Act is hereby amended by repealing the word "adjoining" in the proviso to subsection two.

Profits of gasworks,
&c.

33. It shall be lawful for the Council from time to time to transfer to the general account of the borough any surplus remaining to the credit of the separate account which the Council would be obliged by law to keep, showing the moneys accruing from gaswork or electric-light works: Provided always that no moneys shall be so transferred till due provision is first made for all sums with which the separate account is by law chargeable.
