A BILL INTITULED

AN ACT to provide for the Establishment of Mutual Fire Insurance Associations. Title.

BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. The Short Title of this Act is "The Mutual Fire Insurance Short Title. Act, 1903."

Formation of Association.
Declaration.

2. Whenever one hundred or more persons, being the owners of farm or isolated property, shall have subscribed their names to a declaration that they have thereby bound themselves to form a Mutual Fire Insurance Association for the purpose of mutual insurance against loss or damage by fire, and to effect insurance in said Association against loss or damage by fire to the amount in the aggregate of not less than forty thousand pounds (which declaration shall state the name of the Association and the place where its business will be conducted), and shall have filed such declaration in duplicate, one copy with the Public Trustee, and the other with the Registrar or Deputy-Registrar of Joint-stock Companies in the district in which the place of business of the Association is to be situate, the Governor in Council may, notwithstanding anything contained in the Companies Act or any other Act, upon application of a secretary ad interim of such Association, to be chosen by ten or more of such subscribers at their first meeting, to be held after ten days' notice given in a newspaper circulating in the district in which the place of business of the Association is to be established, grant a Warrant authorising such subscribers to constitute themselves together with such others as may thereafter join with them an Association under the provisions herein contained, which Warrant shall state the name or designation of the said Association and the place of business thereof.

Governor may grant
Warrant after publication.

How meeting to be called.

3. As soon as convenient after such Warrant is obtained, the said secretary shall call a first general meeting of the said Association at the place so designated as the place of its business, and of which at least ten days' notice shall be given by notice posted to each subscriber at his or her post-office address, or by advertisement in a newspaper circulating in the district in which the business of the Association is to be conducted.

Name and membership of Association.
Office, &c.

4. (1.) At such meeting the name of the Association (of which the word "Mutual" shall form a part) shall be formally adopted, as also the place of the office of the said Association, and thereupon a copy of the resolutions adopting such name and place of business, certified under the hand of the secretary ad interim, shall be filed with the Registrar or Deputy-Registrar of Joint-stock Companies of the district within which such place of business is to be situate; and upon the filing of such copy of the resolutions the several subscribers above mentioned, and all other persons thereafter effecting insurances therein, shall be and become members of the said Association, and shall be a body corporate by and under the name so adopted, which shall not thereafter be changed:

Fee for registration.

Provided that the Registrar or Deputy-Registrar of Joint-stock Companies shall be entitled to charge a fee of not more than five pounds for any filing under this section.

(2.) But the corporate powers of the Association shall be forfeited by non-user, or discontinuance of business, or by suspension or cancellation of license.

Election of directors.

5. At such meeting a Board of Directors shall be elected, chosen from among the subscribers; such Board to consist of not less than five nor more than nine; and no subscriber shall be elected as a director unless he be a subscriber for insurance to at least two hundred pounds.

6. The Association may admit as a member thereof the owner of any farm or isolated property, movable or immovable, and may insure the same; and every person admitted a member of said Association by such insurance shall be entitled to the like rights, and be subjected to the like liabilities, as other members of said Association :

Power to admit members.

10 Provided always that it shall not be competent for the Association to insure the property of persons who are not members of the said Association.

7. A meeting of the members for the election of directors and auditors shall be held in every year, at such time and place as may be prescribed by the by-laws or resolutions of the Association.

Annual meeting for election of directors.

15 8. At annual meetings, in addition to the election of directors and auditors, a report of the transactions of the Association for the year which shall have ended on the last day of the month last preceding the date of such annual meeting shall be presented and read, together with a full and unreserved statement of its affairs, exhibiting receipts and expenditure, assets and liabilities.

Annual report and statement.

20 9. All annual or special meetings of the members of the Association shall be convened by inserting in one or more newspapers circulating in the district wherein the registered office of the Association shall be situated in one number thereof in each of two consecutive weeks, or by sending by post, a notice signed by the secretary or manager of the Association that on some date to be named therein, not to be earlier than fourteen days after the date of the first insertion or postage as aforesaid, and at the hour and place to be therein stated, such meetings shall be held.

Notice of meetings.

30 10. Each member of the Association shall be entitled, at all meetings of the Association at which he is present, to the number of votes proportioned to the amount by him insured, according to the following scale, that is to say : For any sum under two hundred and fifty pounds, one vote; from two hundred and fifty pounds to five hundred pounds, two votes; from five hundred pounds to one thousand pounds, three votes; and one vote for every additional thousand pounds : but no member shall be entitled to vote while in arrears for any assessment due by him to the Association.

Members to have votes proportionate to their insurance.

40 11. The election of directors shall be held and made by such members of the Association as shall attend for that purpose in their own proper persons :

Election of directors.

Provided that the number of members so attending shall not be less than ten per centum of the actual membership.

12. The election of directors shall be by ballot.

Mode of election.

45 13. If at any such election two or more members have an equal number of votes, then the members of the Association shall proceed to elect by ballot until it is determined which of the persons so having an equal number of votes shall be the director or directors, so as to complete the whole number of directors to be elected.

Provision in case of tie.

50 14. The directors shall be members of the Association and insurers therein, for the time they hold office, to the amount of two hundred pounds at least.

Qualification of directors.

Certain persons not eligible to be elected directors.

15. No agent, or paid officer, or person in the employment of any such Association, other than the manager, shall be eligible to be elected a director, or shall be allowed to interfere in the election of directors for such Association.

Quorum of directors.

16. Three directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. 5

Recording dissent of directors.

17. Any director disagreeing with the majority of the Board at any meeting may have his dissent recorded, with his reasons therefor.

Vacancies, how filled up.

18. If any vacancy happen among the directors during the term for which they may have been elected, by death, resignation, ceasing to have the necessary qualification under the provisions aforesaid, insolvency, or by being absent without previous leave of the Board from three regular meetings of the Board in succession (which absence shall ipso facto create such vacancy), such vacancy shall be filled up for the remainder of the term, and as soon as may be after the vacancy occurs, by the election by the remaining directors of a duly qualified person to fill the same. 10 15

Provisions in case of failure of election of directors on proper day.

19. In case an election of directors be not made on the day on which it ought to have been made, the Association shall not for this cause be dissolved, but the election may be held on any subsequent day, at a meeting to be called by the directors for that purpose, or as is otherwise provided by the by-laws of the Association; and in such case the directors shall continue to hold office until their successors are elected. 20

Election of chairman.

20. The directors shall, at their first meeting after any such election, proceed to elect by ballot from among themselves a chairman, and at such election the secretary shall preside. 25

Appointment of manager and other officers.

21. The Board may from time to time appoint a manager, who may be a director also, a secretary, a treasurer, and such other officers, agents, or assistants as to them may seem necessary, prescribe their duties, fix their salaries, compensations, or allowances, take such security from them as may be required for the faithful performance of their respective duties, or may remove them and appoint others instead. 30

Tariff of rates.

22. The said Board may also adopt a tariff of rates for insurance, and vary the same from time to time, and determine the sum to be insured on any property. 35

Meetings of Board.

23. The said Board may hold their meetings monthly, or oftener if necessary, for transacting the business of the Association.

Record of proceedings.

24. The said Board shall keep a record of their proceedings. 40

Board may pass by-laws.

25. The Board of Directors may, from time to time, make and prescribe such regulations or by-laws as to them may appear needful and proper, respecting the funds and property of the Association, the duties of the officers, agents, and assistants thereof, the effectual carrying-out of the objects contemplated by the Association, the holding of the annual meeting, and such other matters as appertain to the business of the Association and are not contrary to law, and may from time to time alter and amend the said regulations or by-laws: 45

Alter and amend by-laws.

Provided that every by-law and every repeal, amendment, or re-enactment thereof shall be confirmed at a general meeting of the Association duly called for that purpose. 50

26. The Board of Directors shall superintend and have the management of the funds and property of the Association, and of all matters relating thereto not otherwise provided for. Board to manage property of Association.
27. The Board of Directors may make arrangements with any insurance company for the reinsurance of risks on such conditions with respect to the payment of premiums thereon as may be agreed between them. Reinsurance.
28. Any member of such Association may, with the consent of the directors, withdraw therefrom, upon such terms as the directors may require. Withdrawal of members.
29. The Board of Directors of any such Association may invest the capital and funds of the Association in mortgages on real estate, debentures of any local body, or in the public securities of this colony. Investment of capital funds.
30. The Board of Directors of any such Association may borrow money for such period and on such conditions as shall seem expedient; the whole of the assets, including premium notes of the Association, being held liable to pay the same: Provided always that the money so borrowed shall only be for the purpose of paying ascertained fire losses, and shall not exceed one-half the amount remaining unpaid upon the premium notes of the Association. Directors may borrow money. Assets of Association to be liable for same.
31. Subject to the provisions of section six, the Association may insure isolated buildings, also household furniture, merchandise, machinery, farm produce, and other commodities contained in such buildings against damage or loss by fire, whether the same happen by accident or by any other means, except that of design on the part of the insured, or by the invasion of an enemy, or by insurrection. Property which may be insured.
32. A Mutual Fire Insurance Association may effect insurance upon the premium-note principle for a period not exceeding five years, but only on farm and other non-hazardous property, and the minimum of such premium notes shall not be less than one per centum per annum on the amount of the insurance effected, and the amount of the premium note shall in each case be in proportion to the tariff-rate prescribed for such insurance. Insurance on premium-note principle. Minimum rate.
33. The Association may issue policies of insurance for any term not exceeding five years. Form of policy.
34. No policy of insurance shall be issued by any such Association until application shall have been made for insurance to the extent of at least forty thousand pounds, and approved by the Board of Directors. When policies may issue.
35. Any policy may be renewed at the discretion of the Board of Directors by a renewal receipt instead of a new policy, on the insured giving his premium note or undertaking therefor. Renewing policies.
36. All policies of insurance issued by the Board of Directors, sealed with the seal of the Association, signed by the chairman, and countersigned by the secretary or acting-secretary, shall be binding on the Association: Mode of executing policies.
- Provided that any misrepresentation contained in application therefor, or any false statement respecting the title or ownership of the applicant or his circumstances, or the concealment of any encumbrance on the insured property or on the land on which it may be situate, or the failure during the currency of the policy to notify the Association of any change in the title, ownership, or encumbrance Proviso in case of fraud.

of the insured property and to obtain the written consent thereto, shall render the policy void, and no claim for loss shall be recoverable thereunder unless the Board of Directors in their discretion shall see fit to waive the defect.

Liability of premium note on cancellation of policy.

37. If the policy be cancelled or avoided by the Association, the liability of the insured on his premium note or undertaking shall cease from the date of such cancellation or avoidance on account of any loss that may occur to the Association thereafter, but the party insured shall nevertheless be liable to pay his proportion of the losses and expenses of the Association to the time of cancelling or avoiding the policy, and, on payment of his proportion of all assessments then payable and to become payable in respect of losses and expenses sustained up to such period, shall be entitled to a return of his premium note or undertaking, and such proportion of the premium paid by him as shall not have been absorbed by the losses and expenses of the Association up to such period, and a condition to this effect shall be indorsed on the policy. 5 10 15

Effect of cancellation on account of alienation, assignment, &c.

38. If the Association become entitled to avoid a policy for alienation or partial alienation of the insured property, or of any interest therein, upon the return of the policy to the Association be cancelled, unless the directors elect to continue the same, the assured shall be entitled to receive his premium note or notes upon payment of his proportion of all losses and expenses which had accrued prior to such surrender, but the assignee may have the policy transferred to him; and upon application to the directors such assignee on giving proper security to their satisfaction for such portion of the premium note or undertaking as remains unpaid, and with their consent within thirty days next after such alienation, may have the policy ratified and confirmed to him; and by such ratification and confirmation said assignee shall be entitled to all the rights and privileges and be subject to all the liabilities and conditions to which the original party insured was entitled and subject: 20 25 30

Proviso.

Provided, however, that in case where the assignee is a mortgagee the directors may permit the policy to remain in force, and to be transferred to him by way of additional security, without requiring any premium note or undertaking from such assignee, or without his becoming in any manner personally liable for premiums or otherwise, but in such cases the premium note or undertaking and liability of the mortgagor in respect thereof shall continue and be in no wise affected. 35 40

Association may accept premium notes.

39. The Association may accept premium notes in the form prescribed in the Schedule hereto, or may accept the undertaking of the insured for insurances, and may issue policies thereon, said notes or undertakings to be assessed for the losses and expenses of the Association in manner hereinafter provided. 40 45

Part payment with application.

40. The directors shall demand a first payment on the premium note or undertaking at the time that application for insurance is made; and such payment shall be credited upon said premium note or undertaking, or against future assessments.

Assessment upon premium notes.

41. The directors may make assessments upon premium notes before losses have happened or expenses been incurred, and any surplus from any such assessments shall become part of the Reserve Fund. 50

42. All premium notes and undertakings belonging to the Association shall be assessed under the direction of the Board of Directors at such intervals, and for such sums, as the directors shall determine, and for such further sums as they may think necessary to meet the losses and other expenditure of said Association during the currency of the policies for which said notes or undertakings were given, and in respect to which they are liable for assessment; and every member of the Association or person who has given a premium note or undertaking shall pay the sums from time to time payable by him to the Association during the continuance of his policy, in accordance with such assessment; and any such assessment shall become payable in thirty days after notice of such assessment shall be posted to such member or person who has given the premium note or undertaking, directed to his post-office address, as given in his original application or in writing to the secretary of the Association.

Assessment of premium notes.

Notice to be given of the assessment.

43. If the assessment on the premium note or undertaking upon any policy be not paid within thirty days after the day on which the said assessment shall become due, the policy of insurance for which said assessments shall have been made shall be null and void, as respecting all claims for losses occurring during the time of such non-payment:

Policy void if note not paid in thirty days.

Provided always that the said policy shall be renewed when such assessment shall have been paid, unless the secretary give notice to the contrary to the assessed party in the manner herein provided; but nothing shall relieve the assured party from his liability to pay such assessment or any subsequent assessments, nor shall such assured party be entitled to recover the amount of any loss or damage which may happen to property insured under such policy while such assessment shall remain due and unpaid, unless the Board of Directors in their discretion shall decide otherwise.

May be renewed by subsequent payment.

44. A notice of assessment upon any premium note or undertaking posted as aforesaid shall be deemed sufficient if it embody the number of the policy, the period over which the assessment extends, the amount of the assessment, the time when and the place where payable.

Notice of assessment.

45. The assessment upon any premium notes or undertakings shall always be in proportion to the amount of said notes or undertakings.

How assessments proportioned.

46. If any member or other person who has a liability with respect to a premium note or undertaking shall, for thirty days after notice of assessment shall have been posted to him in manner aforesaid, neglect or refuse to pay said assessment, the Association may sue for and recover the same with costs of suit, and such proceeding shall not be a waiver of any forfeiture incurred by such non-payment.

Association may sue for assessment.

47. Whenever any assessment is made on any premium note or undertaking given to the Association for any risk taken, or as a consideration for any policy of insurance issued by the Association, and an action is brought to recover such assessment, the certificate of the secretary specifying such assessment, and the amount due to the Secretary's certificate prima facie evidence.

	Association on such note or undertaking by means thereof, shall be taken and received as prima facie evidence thereof in any Court in this colony.
When premium note to be returned.	48. Forty days after the expiration of the term of insurance the premium note or undertaking given for such insurance shall, on application therefor, be given up to the signer thereof, provided all losses and expenses with which said note or undertaking may be chargeable shall have been paid.	5
Directors may retain amount of premium note in case of loss.	49. If there be any loss on property insured by the Association, the Board of Directors when paying the insurance thereon may retain thereout the amount of the premium note or undertaking given for insurance of such property until the time has expired for which insurance has been made, and at the expiration of said time the insured shall have the right to demand and receive such part of the retained sum as, having been assessed for, has not been paid.	10
Liability of members.	50. No member of any such Mutual Insurance Association shall be liable in respect of any loss or other claim or demand against the Association otherwise than upon and to the extent of the amount unpaid upon his premium note or undertaking.	15
Property liable.	51. All the property and assets of the Association, including premium notes or undertakings, shall be liable for all losses which may arise.	20
Reserve Fund.	52. The Association shall form a Reserve Fund, to consist of moneys which shall remain on hand at the end of each year after payment of the ordinary expenses and losses of the Association; and for that purpose the Board of Directors may levy an annual assessment, not exceeding twenty-five per centum on the premium notes or undertakings held by the said Association, and such annual assessment may be made in advance; and such Reserve Fund may from time to time be applied by the directors to pay off such liabilities of the Association as may not be provided for out of the ordinary receipts for the same or any succeeding year:	25
How composed.
How applied.		30
How invested.	Provided that such Reserve Fund shall be invested either in mortgages on real estate, or in debentures of any local body, or in the public securities of the colony, or may remain in a bank on deposit.	35
Treasurer to give security.	53. The treasurer or other officer having charge of the money of the Association shall give security, to the satisfaction of the Board of Directors, in a sum of not less than four hundred pounds, for the faithful discharge of his duties.
Changing office of Association.	54. The location of the office of the Association shall only be changed by a three-fifths vote of the members of the Association at a general meeting or a special meeting called for that purpose.	40
Lands that may be held by the Association.	55. Any such Association may hold lands, but such lands only as are requisite for the accommodation of the Association in relation to the transaction of its business, or such lands as have been bona fide mortgaged to it by way of security, or conveyed to it in satisfaction of debts contracted in the course of its dealings previously to conveyance, or purchased at sales upon judgments obtained for such debts, and may, from time to time, sell, mortgage, and convey or lease any such lands.	45
