

MINISTRY OF MAORI DEVELOPMENT BILL

EXPLANATORY NOTE

THIS Bill, which is to come into force on 1 January 1992,—

- (a) Makes provision in relation to the establishment of the Ministry of Maori Development; and
- (b) Abolishes the Iwi Transition Agency and the Ministry of Maori Affairs.

Clause 2 defines, for the purposes of the Bill, the terms “Maori” and “Ministry of Maori Development”.

Clause 3 provides that the Act shall bind the Crown.

Clause 4: Subclause (1) provides that the responsibilities of the Ministry of Maori Development include—

- (a) Promoting higher levels of achievement for Maori with respect to—
 - (i) Education:
 - (ii) Training and employment:
 - (iii) Health:
 - (iv) Economic resource development:
- (b) Monitoring, and liaising with, each department and agency that provides or has a responsibility to provide services to or for Maori for the purpose of ensuring the adequacy of those services.

Subclause (2) provides that the responsibilities set out in subclause (1) are in addition to the other responsibilities conferred on the Ministry of Maori Development from time to time.

Subclause (3) provides that nothing in clause 4 limits the provisions of any other Act.

Clause 5: Subclause (1) provides that all rights (including any rights of ownership or possession), powers, duties, liabilities, directions, and contracts (other than contracts of employment) exercisable by, vested in, or binding on the Iwi Transition Agency or on the Ministry of Maori Affairs immediately before the 1st day of January 1992 shall, on and from that date, become exercisable by, vested in, or binding on the Ministry of Maori Development.

Subclause (2) provides that all documents made or things done by the Iwi Transition Agency and the Ministry of Maori Affairs before the 1st day of January 1992 in the exercise of any functions, powers, or duties previously conferred or imposed on the Iwi Transition Agency or the Ministry of Maori

Affairs shall, to the extent that they are subsisting or in force on that date, continue to have effect for all purposes in all respects as if they had been made or done by the Ministry of Maori Development.

Clause 6 abolishes the Iwi Transition Agency and the Ministry of Maori Affairs.

Clause 7 effects consequential amendments.

Clause 8: Subclause (1) repeals provisions of the Maori Affairs Restructuring Act 1989.

Subclause (2) is a savings provision.

A BILL INTITULED

An Act to make provision in relation to the establishment of the Ministry of Maori Development and to abolish the Iwi Transition Agency and the Ministry of Maori Affairs

BE IT ENACTED by the Parliament of New Zealand as follows:

1. Short Title and commencement—(1) This Act may be cited as the Ministry of Maori Development Act 1991.

(2) This Act shall come into force on the 1st day of January 1992.

2. Interpretation—In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires,—

“Maori” means a person of the Maori race of New Zealand; and includes a descendant of any such person:

“Ministry of Maori Development” means the Ministry of Maori Development that, by virtue of the State Sector Order 1991, becomes, on the 1st day of January 1992, a department of the Public Service.

3. Act to bind the Crown—This Act shall bind the Crown.

4. Particular responsibilities of Ministry of Maori Development—(1) The responsibilities of the Ministry of Maori Development include—

- (a) Promoting higher levels of achievement for Maori with respect to— 5
- (i) Education:
 - (ii) Training and employment:
 - (iii) Health:
 - (iv) Economic resource development:
- (b) Monitoring, and liaising with, each department and agency that provides or has a responsibility to provide services to or for Maori for the purpose of ensuring the adequacy of those services. 10
- (2) The responsibilities of the Ministry of Maori Development under subsection (1) of this section are in addition to the other responsibilities conferred on that Ministry from time to time. 15
- (3) Nothing in this section limits the provisions of any other Act.

5. Vesting in Ministry of Maori Development of rights, etc., of Iwi Transition Agency and Ministry of Maori Affairs—(1) All rights (including any rights of ownership or possession), powers, duties, liabilities, directions, and contracts (other than contracts of employment) exercisable by, vested in, or binding on the Iwi Transition Agency and on the Ministry of Maori Affairs immediately before the 1st day of January 1992 shall, on and from that date, become exercisable by, vested in, or binding on the Ministry of Maori Development. 20 25

(2) All documents made or things done by the Iwi Transition Agency and the Ministry of Maori Affairs before the 1st day of January 1992 in the exercise of any functions, powers, or duties previously conferred or imposed on the Iwi Transition Agency or the Ministry of Maori Affairs shall, to the extent that they are subsisting or in force on that date, continue to have effect for all purposes in all respects as if they had been made or done by the Ministry of Maori Development. 30 35

6. Abolition of Iwi Transition Agency and Ministry of Maori Affairs—The Iwi Transition Agency and Ministry of Maori Affairs are hereby abolished.

7. Consequential amendments—(1) The enactments specified in the Schedule to this Act are hereby amended in the manner indicated in that Schedule. 40

(2) Every reference in Parts II and III of the Maori Affairs Restructuring Act 1989 to the General Manager of the Iwi Transition Agency shall be read as if it were a reference to the chief executive of the Ministry of Maori Development.

5 (3) Unless in any case the context otherwise requires, and subject to the provisions of this Act, in any other enactment or in any regulations or in any instrument—

10 (a) Every reference to the Iwi Transition Agency or the Ministry of Maori Affairs shall be read as a reference to the Ministry of Maori Development:

(b) Every reference to the General Manager of the Iwi Transition Agency or to the chief executive of the Ministry of Maori Affairs shall be read as a reference to the chief executive of the Ministry of Maori Development.

15 8. Repeals and savings—(1) The Maori Affairs Restructuring Act 1989 is hereby amended by repealing sections 4 to 8, 10 to 12, 13 (1), and 91 and the First and Second Schedules.

20 (2) The repeal of any enactment by subsection (1) of this section shall not affect any amendments made by any such enactment to any other enactment.
