A BILL INTITULED

AN ACT to extend the Provisions of "The Military Pensions Act, 1866," to Members of the South African Contingents. Title.

BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. The Short Title of this Act is "The Military Pensions Extension to Contingents Act, 1900." Short Title.

2. For all the purposes of "The Military Pensions Act, 1866," the forces enrolled by the New Zealand Government for service in South Africa shall be deemed to be colonial forces within the meaning of that Act, and the provisions of that Act shall extend and apply to those forces accordingly in like manner as if their service in South Africa were service under the New Zealand Government: "Military Pensions Act, 1866," extended to contingents in South Africa.

Provided that the allowances made to relatives under that Act shall not be granted to any person under this Act except the widow, child, or mother of an officer, non-commissioned officer, or private.

3. The following persons, and those only, shall be deemed to be members of the forces enrolled by the New Zealand Government for service in South Africa:— Persons entitled.

(1.) The persons actually enrolled in New Zealand as members of the respective New Zealand contingents and reserves, or attached thereto, a complete list of their names being set out in Part I. of the Schedule hereto; and

(2.) The persons who, though not enrolled in New Zealand, were sent to South Africa by the New Zealand Government on non-military service connected with those contingents, and were enrolled in South Africa in those contingents, or in any Imperial force, a list of their names, so far as known, being set out in Part II. of the Schedule hereto, but that list not being complete.

(3.) The persons who, being New-Zealanders, were enrolled in South Africa in those contingents, a list of their names, so far as known, being set out in Part III. of the Schedule hereto, but that list not being complete.

4. The benefits conferred by this Act shall not be in any way affected by the grant of pensions, allowances, or benefits from the Imperial Government. Benefits of Act to be irrespective of benefits from Imperial Government.

SCHEDULE.
