

NEW ZEALAND.

ANNO VICESIMO SEXTO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

No. 25.

ANALYSIS:

AN ACT for the Naturalization of certain persons in the Colony of New Zealand.

Preamble.

WHEREAS by an Act of the General Assembly of New Zealand intituled "The Naturalization Act, 1861," it was amongst other things enacted that every person who should be declared to come within the operation of the said Act by any Proclamation to be issued in that behalf by the Governor, should from the time in such Proclamation specified, be deemed and taken until the termination of the then next Session of the General Assembly to be and to have been from such specified time a natural born subject of Her Majesty within the said Colony: And whereas the persons particularly described in the Schedule A hereunto annexed have from time to time been so declared to come within the operation of the said Act, and the persons particularly described in the Schedule marked B hereunto annexed, have settled in the said Colony and are desirous of being declared to be natural born subjects of Her Majesty within the said Colony and it is expedient that there should be removed from all such persons as aforesaid within the said Colony the disabilities to which aliens are by law subjected:

BE IT THEREFORE ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same as follows:—

Short Title.

I. The Short Title of this Act shall be "The Naturalization Act, 1862."

Persons named in Schedules A and B naturalized.

II. The persons who are particularly described in the Schedules A and B to this Act annexed, shall to all intents and purposes whatsoever within the said Colony, be deemed and taken to be and to have been from the dates set opposite their respective names, natural born subjects of Her Majesty, as if they had been respectively born within the realm of England

Naturalization.

Persons may be Naturalized by Proclamation.

III. And whereas there may from time to time be other persons resident within the said Colony whom it may be expedient to relieve before the next Session of the General Assembly from the disabilities to which aliens are by law subject: Be it therefore further enacted that every person who shall be declared to come within the operation of this Act by any Proclamation to be issued in that behalf by the Governor, shall, from time to time in such Proclamation specified, be deemed and taken, until the termination of the next Session of the General Assembly, to be and to have been from such specified time a natural born subject of Her Majesty within the said Colony, as fully to all intents and purposes, as if his name had been inserted in the Schedules hereto annexed: Provided always that every such Proclamation shall contain the description, occupation, or calling of every person therein named, and his place of residence at the date of such Proclamation.
