WHEREAS, by an Ordinance of the Superintendent and Provincial Preamble.
 5 Council of Otago, made and passed in the thirty-seventh year of the reign of Her present Majesty (Session XXXIII., No. 422), shortly intituled "The Otago Harbour Board Ordinance, 1874," it was enacted that, for the purpose of constructing such works as are specified in the said Ordinance, the Board (meaning thereby the Otago
 10 Harbour Board) might borrow, on the security of the lands described in the First Schedule to the said Ordinance, and of all other lands which might for the time being be vested in the said Board, and of the rents thereof, and of the dues chargeable or receivable by the said Board under the said Ordinance, any sums of money not exceeding in 15 the aggregate the sum of two hundred and fifty thousand pounds, at any rate not exceeding six pounds per centum per annum, payable half-yearly, and so often as such sum should be repaid the said Board might re-borrow the same or any less sum: And whereas, in exercise of the powers conferred in and by the said Ordinance, the said
 20 Board has from time to time borrowed upon the security aforesaid various sums of money amounting in the aggregate to the said sum of two hundred and fifty thousand pounds, and in order to secure the repayment thereof has from time to time issued, or caused to be issued, mortgages in the form prescribed by the said Ordinance:
 25 And whereas, in pursuance of the provisions of the said Ordinance, certain of the moneys so authorized to be borrowed have been repaid, but the mortgages in respect of the unpaid balance are still outstanding: And whereas, by an Act of the General Assembly of New Zealand passed in the forty-fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty (No. 23, Local), shortly intituled "The Otago Harbour Board Empowering Act, 1880," the Board was authorized to raise and borrow from time to time, in addition to the money then already borrowed, a sum or sums of money not exceeding in the whole one hundred thousand pounds: And whereas the said Board has, in exercise of the powers conferred upon it by the said Act, from time to time borrowed in the manner directed by and subject to the conditions of "The Harbours Act, 1878," various sums of money, amounting in the aggregate to the said sum of one hundred thousand pounds, and in order to secure the repayment thereof has from time to time issued, or caused to be issued, debentures in the form provided by "The Harbours Act, 1878," and such debentures are still outstanding: And whereas, by an Act of the General Assembly of New Zealand, passed in the forty-sixth year of the reign of Her present Majesty (No. 24, Local), shortly intituled "The Otago Harbour Board Further Empowering Act, 1882," the said Board was authorized to raise and borrow from time to time, in addition to any money then already borrowed, a sum or sums of money not exceeding in the whole two hundred thousand pounds: And whereas the said Board has, in exercise of the powers conferred upon it by the said "Otago Harbour Board Further Empowering Act, 1882," borrowed in the manner directed by and subject to the conditions of "The Harbours Act, 1878," sums of money amounting in the aggregate to the said sum of two hundred thousand pounds, and in order to secure the repayment thereof has issued debentures in the form provided by "The Harbours Act, 1878," and such debentures are still outstanding: And whereas doubts have arisen as to the status of the holders of the debentures which have been issued as aforesaid, and the Otago Harbour Board is desirous of having power to borrow as hereinafter mentioned moneys not exceeding in the whole the sum of seven hundred thousand pounds, necessary for paying off and discharging all or any moneys raised by virtue of the said Ordinance, and "The Otago Harbour Board Empowering Act, 1880," and "The Otago Harbour Board Further Empowering Act, 1882," and for raising a sum or sums of money to be applied in improving the Otago Harbour: And whereas it is expedient that power should be given to the said Board for the purpose aforesaid:
