A BILL INTITULED

An Act for promoting the Revision of the Statute Law, by repeal- Title. ing divers Acts and Parts of Acts which have ceased to be in Force or have become unnecessary.

5 WHEREAS, with a view to the revision of the statute law, and Preamble. particularly to the preparation of an edition of the Public General Statutes comprising only enactments which are in force, it is expedient that divers Acts and parts of Acts (mentioned among others in the Schedule to this Act) which may be regarded as spent, or 10 have ceased to be in force otherwise than by express and specific repeal by Parliament, or have, by lapse of time and change of circumstances, become unnecessary, should be expressly and specifically repealed:

Be it therefore enacted by the General Assembly of New 15 Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. The Short Title of this Act is "The Repeals Act, 1891."

2. The word "enactment," where it first occurs at the com- Interpretation. mencement of the fourth section of this Act, shall extend to and 20 include Acts or Ordinances passed by the Superintendent of any former province with the advice and consent of the Provincial Council thereof.

3. The enactments of the Imperial Parliament, described in the Imperial Acts First Part of the Schedule to this Act, are hereby repealed as to this repealed. 25 colony, and shall cease to operate or be of any force therein.

The enactments of the General Legislative Council of New Ordinances and Act of colony repealed. No. 8-2.

Short Title.

Zealand, described in the Second Part of the Schedule of this Act, and the enactments of the General Assembly of New Zealand, described in the Third Part of the said Schedule, are hereby repealed, subject to the exceptions and qualifications in the said Schedule mentioned.

Saving of rights of naturalised persons.

4. All persons naturalised under any enactment for the naturalisation of persons repealed by this Act shall be deemed to be naturalised under "The Aliens Act, 1880," as from the date of their original naturalisation under the repealed enactment.

General saving clause.

5. Where any enactment not comprised in the Schedule has 10 been repealed, confirmed, revived, or perpetuated by any enactment hereby repealed, such repeal, confirmation, revivor, or perpetuation shall not be affected by the repeal effected by this Act.

The repeal by this Act of any enactment shall not affect any right to any of Her Majesty's revenues of the Crown, or affect any 15 charges thereupon, or prevent any such enactment from being put in force for the collection of any such revenues, or otherwise in relation thereto.

Act not to affect any status, capacity, or extinct rights, &c.

6. This Act shall not affect the validity, invalidity, effect, or right, nor revive any consequences of anything already done or suffered;

Or any existing status or capacity;

Or any status or capacity acquired by any person under any repealed enactment, or any status or capacity derived from or through any such person by any other person;

Or any right or title already acquired or accrued, or any 25 remedy or proceeding in respect thereof:

Or any release or discharge of or from any debt, penalty, claim, or demand;

Or any indemnity;

Or the proof of any past act or thing:

Nor shall this Act revive or restore any jurisdiction, office, duty, drawback, fee, payment, liberty, custom, right, title, privilege, claim, restriction, exemption, usage, practice, procedure, or other matter or thing not now existing or in force.

"Repeals Act, 1878," amended.

7. "The Repeals Act, 1878," shall be read and construed as if, in the entry in the Third Part of the Schedule of that Act relating to the Act passed in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, No. 17, intituled "The Auskland Roman Catholic Endowments Sales Act, 1858," the word and numerals "No. 18" had been substituted for the word and numerals "No. 17."
