- 25 (3.) The grant of any such license, and the conditions on which it has been granted, shall be notified in the Gazette.

5. Horse-racing which takes place otherwise than under the authority and control of a racing club holding a license under this Act, or which takes place under the authority and control of a racing club holding a license under this Act but otherwise than in conformity with the conditions of that license, is in this Act referred to as illegal racing. 5
