SLAUGHTERING AND INSPECTION AMENDMENT

ANALYSIS.

Title.
1. Short Title.

2. No fees payable to abattoir authorities in respect of meat from stock slaughtered in meat-export slaughterhouses and sold for bacon, hams, tinning, or export.

A BILL INTITULED

AN ACT to amend the Slaughtering and Inspection Act, 1908. Title.

BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. This Act may be cited as the Slaughtering and Inspection Amendment Act, 1930, and shall be read together with and deemed part of the Slaughtering and Inspection Act, 1908 (hereinafter referred to as the principal Act). Short Title.

2. Nothing in the first proviso to section twenty-seven of the principal Act, or in section three of the Wellington City Abattoir Charges and Renewal Fund Act, 1919, or in section three of the Auckland City Abattoir Act, 1924, or in any by-law made under any of those enactments, shall apply to the sale or exposure for sale of bacon, hams, or tinned meat, from stock slaughtered in meat-export slaughterhouses, or to the sale or exposure for sale of other meat from such stock for conversion into bacon or hams, or for tinning purposes, or for export beyond New Zealand, or shall authorize the controlling authority of any abattoir to charge or require any person to pay fees in respect of any such bacon, hams, or tinned meat, or in respect of any such other meat that is sold or exposed for sale as aforesaid. No fees payable to abattoir authorities in respect of meat from stock slaughtered in meat-export slaughterhouses and sold for bacon, hams, tinning, or export.

By Authority: W. A. G. SKINNER, Government Printer, Wellington.—1930.
