A BILL INTITULED

AN ACT to extend the Operation of "The Small Birds Nuisance Act, 1882." Title.

BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. The Short Title of this Act is "The Small Birds Nuisance Act 1882 Extension Act, 1886." Short Title.

2. It shall be lawful for the Council of any county or the Board of any road district to lay poisoned grain or seeds for the destruction of small birds upon any public roads within its jurisdiction, and, with the consent of the owners of adjoining lands, upon any private roads within the county or road district respectively: County Council or Road Board may lay poisoned grain upon roads.

Provided always that before laying poison on any road notice shall be given by public advertisement in some newspaper published within the district, or, if there be no such newspaper, then in some newspaper circulating therein, for at least two weeks and not less than once in each week of the intention to lay poison as aforesaid.

3. Section six of "The Small Birds Nuisance Act, 1882," is hereby repealed. Repeal.

By Authority : GEORGE DIDSBURY, Government Printer, Wellington.—1886.
