A BILL INTITULED

AN ACT to amend "The Statutes Compilation Act, 1902."

Title.

BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :—

1. The Short Title of this Act is "The Statutes Compilation Act Amendment Act, 1903"; and it shall form part of and be read together with "The Statutes Compilation Act, 1902" (hereinafter referred to as "the principal Act").

Short Title.

2. Section two of the principal Act is hereby amended by adding the words following at the end thereof, namely :—

Section 2 of principal Act amended.

"In preparing such compilation, the Solicitor-General shall make such consequential and other alterations in, additions to, or omissions from the text as, in his opinion, are necessary in order to give effect to implied repeals, to secure uniformity of expression, and generally to allow of the compilation being enacted as an Act of the year of enactment, and shall indorse upon such compilation or attach thereto a memorandum directing attention to every such alteration, addition, or omission, and stating, where necessary, the reason therefor."

Solicitor-General to make necessary consequential alterations.

Struck out.

3. In every Bill submitted with a view to the passing of an enacting statute under the provisions of subsection one of section four of the principal Act, such part of the (A) Schedule in the said subsection mentioned as consists of the alterations, additions, or omissions made by the Solicitor-General shall be printed in italics or erasure type; and,

Alterations, &c., to be shown in italics or erasure type.

Notwithstanding anything contained in subsection two of the said section four of the principal Act, any such alteration, addition, or omission made as aforesaid may be amended, altered, or rejected, or restored.
