SPENCER RESTORATION OF WATER-RIGHTS.

ANALYSIS.

Title.
Preamble.
Short Title.

2. Rights of Thomas Spencer to the use and benefit of the waters of the Waikiekie Stream in the Thames District, Auckland.

A BILL INTITULED

AN ACT to restore to Thomas Spencer his rights to the use and benefit of the waters of the Waikiekie Stream, in the Thames District, Auckland. Title.

5 WHEREAS without authority in that behalf the Superintendent of the Province of Auckland, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, in making certain plant at the Thames referred to and recited in the preamble to "The Thames Water Supply Act, 1876," dammed back and diverted from their natural and proper course
10 the waters of a certain stream called or known as "Waikiekie," which had been and were then being used by one Thomas Spencer, of Parawai, in the Thames District, he then being, and still is, the owner of land known as the Parawai Gardens, through which the said stream flowed for divers domestic and other lawful purposes, thereby interfering with the riparian rights of the said Thomas Spencer as such owner, and also depriving him during portions of each year of the use and benefit of the said waters: And whereas the said plant was erected and being used in supplying the Thames District with water at the time of the passing of "The 20 Thames Water Supply Act, 1876:" And whereas by section two of the said Act the word "plant" was declared to mean and include all dams, reservoirs, flumes, pipes, drains, water, watercourses, material, rights, and easements then possessed, used, or exercised by the persons in the said section referred to: And whereas at the time of the 25 passing of the said Act the said persons were then possessed of and were then using and exercising the said plant and supply of water so made by the said Superintendent: And whereas by the third section of the said Act the said plant (as interpreted by the said Act) and the management and control thereof were declared to be vested in and to 30 be the property of a committee to be appointed as therein provided for: And whereas by section three of "The Thames Water Supply Act, 1880," the said plant and the management thereof were thereby trans-
