A BILL INTITULED

AN ACT for the Administration and Control of the Tourist Traffic and the Better Administration and Control of Tourist and Health Resorts and Reserves. Title.

5 BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. The Short Title of this Act is "The Tourist and Health Resorts Control Act, 1906." Short Title.

10 2. In this Act "Minister" means the Minister of the Crown for the time being having the administration of this Act. Interpretation.

3. (1.) There shall be a Department of the public service called the "Department of Tourist and Health Resorts" having, under the direction of the Minister, such powers and duties as are provided for by this Act. Department established.

(2.) The Governor may from time to time appoint a General Manager to the Department, and such other officers as may be deemed necessary, and who shall respectively perform such duties as the Minister from time to time directs. Appointment of officers.

20 (3.) The persons holding office in the Department on the coming into operation of this Act shall be deemed to have been appointed under this Act.

4. The expenses incident to the administration of this Act shall be defrayed out of sums to be from time to time appropriated by Parliament for that purpose. Expenses of administering Act.

5. The control of any of the reserves generally described in the Schedule hereto may from time to time, by Order in Council gazetted, be vested in the General Manager, and shall be administered under this Act. Reserves in Schedule to be administered under this Act.

30 6. All moneys received in respect of reserves brought under the provisions of this Act, and all moneys heretofore received in respect of the Te Aroha Hot Springs Domain, shall be paid into the Public Account and form part of the Consolidated Fund. Moneys received to be paid into Public Account.

Certain provisions of Public Domains Act applied.

7. The provisions of sections five, six, ten, eleven, and fifteen to seventeen of "The Public Domains Act, 1881," shall, mutatis mutandis, extend and apply to all reserves administered under this Act:

Provided that all references therein to the Commissioner of Crown Lands shall be deemed to be references to the General Manager of Tourist and Health Resorts. 5

Minister may grant
use of any reserve
for sports or games, authorise erection of stands, and regulate games to be played.

8. The Minister may—

(a.) Grant the exclusive use of any such reserve, or any part thereof, on any days, not exceeding ten in any year, but not for more than three days consecutively at any time, to any person, body, society (incorporate or not) for the purpose of particular sports, games, or other recreation, with authority for such person, body, or society to demand a fee or charge for admission on such day or days to the reserve or part thereof so granted, but not in any case exceeding for each day one shilling for each person, with an extra shilling for every horse or vehicle which he may desire to take with him, unless such person desires to obtain admission to the stand hereinafter mentioned, in which case an additional fee or charge not exceeding ten shillings may be imposed prior to his obtaining admission to such stand: 10 15 20

(b.) Erect, or authorise any person, body, or society (incorporate or not) to erect upon some portion of the reserve, buildings for ornamental purposes, or a stand or pavilion, upon such terms as to plans, size, situation, custody, and otherwise in all respects as the Minister determines; and may appoint the mode and price of admission to any such stand or pavilion on any of the days hereinbefore mentioned: 25 30

(c.) Prescribe the games which shall be permitted to be played in the reserve or any part thereof, and regulate the use of the reserve for such games; and may prohibit the playing of any games at times when the reserve would be thereby damaged, and prohibit altogether the playing of any particular game therein: 35

(d.) Make regulations for the proper administration of any such reserve.

Recovery of fines.

9. All fines under this Act may be recovered in a summary manner, and shall be paid into the Public Account and form part of the Consolidated Fund. 40
