A BILL INTITULED

AN ACT to change the Purpose of a Recreation-ground at Te Aroha, and to set apart other Lands for such Purpose. Title.

5 WHEREAS the lands at Te Aroha, Piako County, in the Schedule hereto first described, were set apart for a recreation-ground, and have been brought under "The Public Domains Act, 1881," and the trustees thereof are desirous of acquiring in lieu thereof the unoccupied lands vested in Her Majesty in the Schedule hereto secondly described as being more convenient and accessible for the said purpose : Preamble.

10 And whereas the first-foresaid lands are or could be made suitable for a racecourse, and the Te Aroha Jockey Club are desirous of obtaining the said lands for such purpose :

15 BE IT THEREFORE ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :—

1. The Short Title of this Act is "The Te Aroha Recreation-ground and Racecourse Act, 1892." Short Title.

20 2. This Act shall be deemed a special Act within the meaning and for the purposes of "The Public Reserves Act, 1881" (herein referred to as "the said Act"). Act to be special Act.

25 3. The lands first described in the Schedule hereto are hereby discharged from reservation as a recreation-ground, and are hereby set apart as a racecourse reserve, and vested in William Herbert Herries, Thomas Bradley, and Alexander Watson Edwards, all of Te Aroha, as trustees of the said racecourse, subject to the provisions of the said Act and "The Public Reserves Act 1881 Amendment Act, 1885." Land set apart for racecourse at Te Aroha.

30 4. The lands secondly described in the Schedule hereto are hereby set apart and reserved as a recreation-ground under the said Act, and shall be deemed to be subject to "The Public Domains Act, 1881," and vested for the above purpose in the same persons as trustees thereof as the lands firstly herein described were vested at the time of the passing of this Act. New recreation-ground provided at Te Aroha.
