ANALYSIS.

Title.
1. Short Title.

2. Defendant to state whether he has entered into a contract with an insurer.

A BILL INTITULED

AN ACT to amend the Workers' Compensation Act, 1908.

Title.

BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. This Act may be cited as the Workers' Compensation Amendment Act, 1912, and shall form part of and be read together with the Workers' Compensation Act, 1908 (hereinafter called the principal Act).

Short Title.

2. In every action for the recovery of compensation or damages in respect of an accident to a worker (whether such action is brought under the principal Act or otherwise) the defendant shall state in his statement of defence whether he has entered into a subsisting contract with any insurer for an indemnity in respect of any liability to pay compensation or damages to any worker, and, if so, the name of the insurer and the amount of the insurance.

Defendant to state whether he has entered into a contract with an insurer.

By Authority : JOHN MACKAY, Government Printer, Wellington.—1912.
