20 “‘Remote terminal’ means any computer or device used to access the computer system:

25 “‘User Departments’ means the Police (including civilian staff), the Department of Justice, and the Ministry of Transport; and includes local authorities authorised under section 4E of this Act to use the computer system.”

30 3. New sections substituted—The principal Act is hereby amended by repealing section 3, section 3A (as inserted by section 3 of the Wanganui Computer Centre Amendment Act 1980), and section 4, and substituting the following sections:

35 “3. Establishment of Wanganui Computer Centre and computer system—(1) There shall continue to be a Computer Centre to be known as the Wanganui Computer Centre, and a computer system shall continue to be established in connection with the Computer Centre.

“(2) The computer system shall consist of the central mainframe computers and associated memory devices at Wanganui, which are used for the storage, processing, and retrieval of information in accordance with section 4 of this Act; but shall not include—

- “(a) The remote terminals and communication devices; or
- “(b) Any other computer installation to which subsection (3) of this section relates; or
- “(c) Any information stored on either the system or its associated data base.

“(3) The organisation for the time being responsible for the management of the Computer Centre may— 10

- “(a) Locate in the same premises as the computer system any other computer installation; and
- “(b) Subject to any conditions imposed in any case by the Policy Committee in consultation with the Commissioner, link any such computer installation 15 to the computer system.

“3A. Management of Computer Centre—(1) The Minister shall be responsible for the Wanganui Computer Centre and the computer system established in connection with the Wanganui Computer Centre. 20

“(2) The Minister shall from time to time enter into such agreements or arrangements, with such organisation or organisations, as the Minister considers reasonably necessary to ensure that—

- “(a) The Computer Centre is properly managed; and 25
- “(b) The necessary services to the User Departments are available from the Computer Centre.

“(3) Every agreement and arrangement entered into by the Minister under subsection (2) of this section shall be subject to the following conditions: 30

- “(a) The Crown shall own—
 - “(i) All applications programmes used in connection with the storage or processing of law enforcement information on the computer system or the retrieval of such information from the system; 35 and
 - “(ii) All data bases associated with law enforcement information stored on the computer system; and
 - “(iii) All law enforcement information, while it is 40 stored on the computer system:

- “(b) The Minister may from time to time direct any organisation that is a party to an agreement or arrangement entered into under subsection (2) of this section to take such action in respect of the 45

Computer Centre as the Minister considers appropriate; and that organisation shall forthwith comply with any such direction:

5 “(c) The parties to any agreement or arrangement entered into under subsection (2) of this section shall at all times while that agreement or arrangement is in force observe the provisions of this Act.

10 “(4) The conditions specified in subsection (3) of this section shall be deemed to be included in every such agreement and arrangement.

“4. Use of computer system—(1) The computer system shall be used solely for—

“(a) The storage, processing, and retrieval of—

15 “(i) Any information (including law enforcement information) specified in the Schedule to this Act; and

“(ii) Any information (including law enforcement information) specified in an Order in Council made under section 30 of this Act; and

20 “(iii) Any other information (not being law enforcement information); and

“(b) The supply of information under subsections (2) and (5) of section 27 of this Act; and

25 “(c) The training of operators and users of the computer system; and

“(d) The detection of any possible misuse of the computer system; and

“(e) The performance by the Commissioner of functions imposed on the Commissioner by this Act; and

30 “(f) The demonstration, for marketing purposes, of systems developed for use in connection with the computer system; and

“(g) The management of the computer system.

New

35 “(1A) Notwithstanding subsection (1) of this section, any User Department, and the organisation for the time being responsible for the management of the Computer Centre, may use the computer system for the storage, processing, and retrieval of any fictitious information for all or any of the 40 purposes specified in paragraphs (c), (d), (f), and (g) of subsection (1) of this section.

“(2) Subject to sections 4B and 4D of this Act, the Police (including civilian staff), the Department of Justice, and the Ministry of Transport may use the computer system for the storage, processing, and retrieval of any information.

“(2A) The chief executive of each User Department shall, at regular 6-monthly intervals, furnish the Policy Committee with a report specifying the categories of information, other than law enforcement information, that are being stored on the computer system by that Department.

“(2B) The Policy Committee may from time to time recommend to the Minister that any category or categories of information should be included in the Schedule to this Act.

“(3) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Act, the organisation for the time being responsible for the management of the Computer Centre may—

“(a) For the purposes of maintaining or upgrading the services provided in connection with the computer system—

“(i) Replace any hardware or component; and 20

“(ii) Add to the computer system any hardware or component; and

“(iii) Withdraw from service any part of the computer system (including any hardware, software, remote terminal, or other component, or any storage media); and 25

Struck Out

“(b) Use on a temporary basis in connection with the computer system as many communication connections and electronic linkages as it may reasonably require; and 30

“(c) Subject to any conditions imposed in any case by the Policy Committee for the purpose of safeguarding the privacy of the individual, use the computer system to demonstrate to any person any system developed by that organisation. 35

5 “(iv) Use on a temporary basis in connection with the computer system as many communication connections and electronic linkages as it may reasonably require; and
 “(b) Subject to any conditions imposed in any case by the Policy Committee for the purpose of safeguarding the privacy of the individual, use the computer system to demonstrate to any person any system developed by that organisation.

“(4) Any hardware or component that is installed in or added to the computer system under paragraph (a) (i) or paragraph (a) (ii) of subsection (3) of this section shall become part of the computer system, and any part of the computer system that is withdrawn
 15 under paragraph (a) (iii) of subsection (3) of this section shall cease to be part of the computer system.

“(5) Where any data base that contains law enforcement information is withdrawn from service under subsection (3) (a) (iii) of this section, that data base shall (subject to such conditions as the Policy Committee may specify, be either destroyed or retained.) be either destroyed, or retained on such conditions as the Policy Committee may specify.

“4A. Use of remote terminals—(1) Subject to subsections (2) to (4) of this section and sections 4B and 4D of this Act, each User
 25 Department may use remote terminals and the communication devices for any purposes (including the storage, processing, and retrieval of information specified in the Schedule to this Act).

“(2) For the purpose of safeguarding the privacy of the individual in relation to law enforcement information, the 30 Policy Committee shall from time to time (prescribe guidelines) issue directions governing—

“(a) The placement of temporary remote terminals and permanent remote terminals; and 35 “(b) The use of remote terminals by User Departments to access law enforcement information.

“(3) The chief executive of each User Department shall ensure that (the prescribed guidelines) such directions are complied with by that person's Department.

40 “(4) The chief executive of each User Department shall—
 “(a) Determine the placement of remote terminals to be used by that person's Department; and

“(b) Forthwith after the placement by that Department of a remote terminal, furnish the Policy Committee with a certificate in relation to that Department’s compliance, in that case, with (prescribed guidelines) any such directions relating to the placement of remote terminals. 5

“4B. Restrictions on storage and retrieval of law enforcement information—(1) Law enforcement information stored on the computer system may be retrieved only—

“(a) By the User Department that stored the information on the computer system; and 10

“(b) By any User Department that has access to the information by virtue of the provisions of the Schedule to this Act or of an Order in Council made under section 30 of this Act; and 15

“(c) By the organisation for the time being responsible for the management of the Computer Centre, if the information is reasonably required to enable the organisation to carry out its functions in relation to the Computer Centre (including the detection of any possible misuse of the computer system); and 20

“(d) By the Commissioner, if the information is reasonably required to enable the Commissioner to carry out the functions imposed on the Commissioner by this Act. 25

“(2) The Policy Committee shall, after consultation with—

“(a) The User Departments; and

“(b) The organisation for the time being responsible for the management of the Computer Centre; and

“(c) The Commissioner; and 30

“(d) The Management Committee,—

determine from time to time either generally or particularly, the maximum periods for which law enforcement information may be stored on the computer system.

“(3) Where any law enforcement information is retained on the computer system for the maximum period for which it may be so retained, the User Department that stored that information on the computer system shall ensure that that information is deleted from the computer system forthwith after the expiration of that period. 40

“4C. Storage, processing, and retrieval of information other than law enforcement information—(1) Subject to section 4B of this Act,—

“(a) The Police (including civilian staff), the Department of Justice, and the Ministry of Transport; and

“(b) The organisation for the time being responsible for the management of the Computer Centre—

- 5 shall each have an unrestricted right to use the computer system for the purposes of storage, processing, and retrieval of information other than law enforcement information.

New

10 “(2) Except as otherwise expressly provided in section 27 of this Act, no department or organisation, other than a User Department or the organisation responsible for the management of the Computer Centre, shall have access to any of the communication devices at the Wanganui Computer Centre that are directly associated with the computer system.

- 15 “4D. Restrictions on retrieval of information other than law enforcement information—Information stored on the computer system, other than law enforcement information, may be retrieved only—

20 “(a) By the User Department that stored the information on the computer system; and

“ (b) By any other User Department with the consent of the User Department that stored the information on the computer system; and

25 “(c) By the organisation for the time being responsible for the management of the Computer Centre, if the information is reasonably required to enable the organisation to carry out its functions in relation to the Computer Centre (including the detection of any possible misuse of the computer system); and

30 “(d) By the Commissioner, if the information is reasonably required to enable the Commissioner to carry out the functions imposed on the Commissioner by this Act.

- 35 “4E. Local authorities may be authorised to use computer system—(1) The Minister may from time to time by notice in the Gazette authorise any local authority to use the computer system for any purposes permitted by this Act, subject to such terms and conditions as the Minister thinks fit.

40 “(2) In this section, ‘local authority’ means a local authority or public body named or specified in the First Schedule or the Second Schedule to the Local Government Official Information and Meetings Act 1987.”
