A BILL INTITULED

An Act to confer Additional Leasing Powers upon the Mayor, Title. Councillors, and Citizens of the City of Wellington.

BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in 5 Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. The Short Title of this Act is "The Wellington Corporation Short Title. Leaseholds Act, 1885."

2. In this Act the word "Corporation" means the Mayor, Interpretation. Councillors, and Citizens of the City of Wellington, and the word

10 "Council" means the Council of the said city.

3. The Council may insert in every or any lease to be hereafter Corporation may made of any lands or buildings the property of the Corporation grant leases containing provisions (whether affected by any special or other Act or otherwise) a provision for fresh lease and to the effect that, prior to the expiration of the term thereby granted, compensation for improvements. 15 a new lease of the premises comprised in such first-mentioned lease for a further term of years equal in length to the term granted by such first-mentioned lease, and containing the same covenants and provisions as are therein contained (including this present provision), shall be put up to public auction at the upset price of the annual 20 value of the land only, without regarding the value of any buildings or improvements thereon, subject to a condition that, in the event of any person other than the lessee, his executors, administrators, or assigns becoming entitled to the new lease, then such person shall pay to the lessee, his executors, administrators, or assigns the value 25 of such buildings and improvements. Such provision shall further No. 32.—1.

stipulate that the aforesaid value of annual ground-rent of land, and value of buildings and improvements, shall be made by three independent persons, one to be appointed by the Corporation, one by the lessee, his executors, administrators, or assigns, and the third by such two appointed persons; and shall contain all necessary and proper subsidiary matter to give due effect to the same.

Leases to be by public auction or public tender. 4. No lease containing the foregoing provision shall (except under section five hereof) be made save upon a letting by public auction or public tender, of which due notice, published in some newspaper circulating in the said city, shall be given.

Existing leases may be surrendered.

5. Leases already made of any lands or buildings the property of the Corporation (under whatever special or other Act or other authority granted) may be surrendered with a view to a new lease thereof, containing the aforesaid provision, being granted, and preliminary contracts for effecting such surrender and new lease may be 15 made. The Council may from time to time, and in manner provided by "The Municipal Corporations Act, 1876," make, alter, and repeal by-laws prescribing the terms and conditions in every respect upon which any such surrenders and new leases may be effected, but it shall not be obligatory upon any leaseholder to surrender his lease. 20

Council may fix terms of years and define class of improvements. 6. The Council may, in manner aforesaid, make, alter, and repeal by-laws fixing the terms of years (not exceeding the limits of the terms for which, but for the passing of this Act, the Corporation could by law let the same hereditaments) for which leases containing the aforesaid provision shall be granted, and defining the class or 25 respective classes of buildings and improvements for which compensation shall, in such provision, be stipulated to be paid as aforesaid, and may in any such provision stipulate that buildings and improvements not coming within any such defined class shall, for the purpose of the aforesaid valuations, be treated as land, and the value thereof be taken 30 into account in fixing the said ground-rent accordingly.

No compensation for certain classes of buildings.

7. Nothing in this Act or in any by-law to be made thereunder contained shall authorize, or be deemed to authorize, the payment of compensation under the said provision for any buildings or improvements situate in any part of the City of Wellington not constructed 35 in accordance with the building regulations concerning that part of the said city defined as District No. 1, contained in an existing by-law of the said city, dated the ninth day of September, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine, or in any amendment or re-enactment of such by-law now or to be hereafter in force.

By-laws not to affect past transactions.

8. No by-law made under this Act shall affect any lease or contract duly made under this Act or under any prior such by-law for the time being in force.

Leases may take effect within six months from date. 9. Every special or other Act or other authority empowering the Corporation to lease for any term in possession shall authorize, 45 and be deemed always to have authorized, the Corporation to let for the like term, to take effect either in possession or within six calendar months from the making of the lease.
