A BILL INTITULED

AN ACT to amend the Regulations for the Sale Letting and Disposal of Waste Lands in the Province of Wellington. Title.

BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. The Short Title of this Act shall be “The Wellington Waste Lands Act, 1870.” Short Title.

2. It shall be lawful for the Superintendent of the Province of Wellington, with the advice and consent of his Executive Council, to set aside out of the Waste Lands within the Province of Wellington the Native title of which has been extinguished, any block or blocks for the purpose of special settlement on such terms as may be sanctioned by an Act or Resolution of the Provincial Council of the Province. Superintendent may set aside a block of land for special settlement.

3. On the expiration of any existing occupation license, it shall be lawful for the Commissioner of Crown Lands of the Province of Wellington, to renew or regrant such license for a further term of years, to the late holder thereof, if he shall desire the same, and if he declines or neglects to apply in writing for the renewal of such license, then to grant occupation license of the land comprised therein, or any part thereof, to any other person for a like term of years, subject in either case to the existing Land Regulations in force in the said Province, except as hereby modified, and at such yearly sum as may be sanctioned by the Provincial Council of the said Province: Provided always that such yearly sum shall in no case be less than twopence per acre. Land Commissioner may renew and issue fresh occupation licenses.
