

SUPPLEMENTARY ORDER PAPER.

LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL.

Wednesday, the 9th Day of October, 1895.

ALCOHOLIC LIQUORS SALE CONTROL ACT AMENDMENT BILL.

Hon. Mr. W. DOWNIE STEWART, in Committee, to move the following amendments:—

In clause 2, to add to subsection (4),—

But if the Court is satisfied that the defendant truly believed that the purchaser was a bonâ fide traveller or lodger, and that the defendant took all reasonable precautions to ascertain whether or not the purchaser was such traveller or lodger, it shall dismiss the case as against the defendant.

If any person not being a bonâ fide traveller or lodger pretend or represent himself to any licensee or his agent, servant, or person in charge of any licensed premises, or portion thereof, to be a bonâ fide traveller or lodger for the purpose of buying or obtaining liquors on Sunday, he shall be liable on conviction to a penalty not exceeding ten pounds.

New clause.

There shall not, save as hereinafter provided, be more than one bar on any licensed premises. The licensee on whose premises any contravention of this section occurs shall be deemed to have committed an offence under this Act, and shall be liable for every day on which such offence occurs to a penalty not exceeding twenty pounds.

Provided that whenever a licensee or person applying for a license shall desire to have more than one bar on his licensed premises, the Licensing Committee or Court may grant permission for two or more bars, provided such bars are described in the license.
