

SUPPLEMENTARY ORDER PAPER.

LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL.

Monday, the 5th Day of October, 1908.

INDUSTRIAL CONCILIATION AND ARBITRATION AMENDMENT BILL.

Hon. Mr. GEORGE, in Committee, to move the following new clauses:—

Officers of industrial unions to be engaged in the industry.

A. (1.) No person shall be qualified to be a member of the committee of management of any industrial union or an officer of any such union unless he has been or is actually and bona fide engaged or employed in the industry in respect of which such union is established.

(2.) Any person who acts as an officer or a member of a committee of management while disqualified under this section shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding ten pounds, to be recovered at the suit of an Inspector of Awards in the same manner as if such person had committed a breach of an award.

(3.) This section shall not apply to any industrial union the number of whose members as shown by the last list of members forwarded to the Registrar in pursuance of section seventeen of the principal Act was less than seventy-five, or to any industrial union so long as a majority of its members are women.

No person to be an officer of more than one union.

B. It shall not be lawful for any person to hold office as an officer or as a member of the committee of management of two or more industrial unions at the same time, and any person who commits a breach of the provisions of this section shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding ten pounds at the suit of an Inspector of Awards in the same manner as if such person had committed a breach of an award.
