

The Council meets at 2.30 p.m.

ORDER PAPER.

LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL.

Thursday, the 16th Day of July, 1891.

NOTICE OF MOTION.

1. The Honourable Mr. BUCKLEY to move, For leave to introduce a Bill intituled "The Public Bodies Powers Act 1867 Amendment Act, 1891."

ORDERS OF THE DAY.

1. Aliens Act Amendment Bill—second reading. (Hon. Mr. Buckley.)
2. Imbecile Passengers Act Amendment Bill—to be committed. (Hon. Mr. Buckley.)

Contingent Notice of Motion.

The Honourable Mr. STEWART, when in Committee, to move the following new clauses :—

The Supreme Court or a Judge thereof, on a summary application, if satisfied that a bond should not have been given, or that the necessity for the same has ceased to exist, may order such bond to be cancelled, or the terms thereof to be modified, or may make such other order as may be considered proper; and may make such order as to costs as may be just.

A passenger in respect of whom a bond shall be entered into, and his executors or administrators, shall indemnify the persons who shall execute such bond, and each of them, against all moneys and loss which they or he respectively may pay or sustain, and against all liability they or he may incur on behalf of or in respect of such passenger. An agent shall be indemnified by his principal against all liability or loss such agent may incur or sustain under this Act.

3. Official and Colonial Defences Secrets Bill—to be committed. (Hon. Mr. Buckley.)
4. Marriage Act Amendment Bill (No. 2)—to be further considered in Committee. (Hon. Mr. Buckley.)

Contingent Notice of Motion.

The Honourable Mr. WILSON, in Committee, to move the following new clause :—

Children born before wedlock of parents subsequently marrying legitimatised.

In all cases in which children have been born out of wedlock of parents who have subsequently intermarried according to any law for the time being in force in this colony for regulating marriages, such children shall be deemed to be the lawful issue of such parents, and shall be capable of inheriting property, and shall have to all intents and purposes such and the same rights as they would have had if such parents had been legally intermarried before the birth of such children: Provided always that this Act shall not affect the inheritance of any hereditaments which, before the passing of this Act, may have descended to any person to the exclusion of any child or children legitimatised by this Act.

Tuesday, the 21st Day of July, 1891.

ORDER OF THE DAY.

1. Supreme Court Act Amendment Bill—second reading. (Hon. Mr. Buckley.)