

SUPPLEMENTARY ORDER PAPER.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

Monday, the 1st Day of July, 1895.

WAGES ATTACHMENT ABOLITION BILL.

Mr. EARNSHAW, in Committee, to move to insert after the word "Act," in line 9, clause 2, the following words:—

The wages of workmen to the amount of nine-tenths thereof where the remuneration does not exceed one pound per week, seven-eighths where the remuneration does not exceed two pounds per week, and five-sixths where the remuneration exceeds that sum, shall be exempt from the operation of any order attaching or charging wages made by any Court.

And to add new clause:—

3. Upon payment into Court of the wages mentioned in any order of attachment, the excess of such attached wages, after paying the costs of recovery thereof, shall be held by the Clerk of the said Court to the credit of all persons claiming the same under such order or under any order attaching the same thereafter obtained by any person to whom such workman as aforesaid was indebted for goods supplied for consumption as food or fuel.

CRIMINAL CODE AMENDMENT BILL.

Mr. G. J. SMITH, in Committee, to move,—

Clause 2: That the word "sixteen," in line 11, be struck out, with the object of inserting another word.

That clause 4 be amended as follows:—

By the omission of the words "last paragraph of the," in line 20.

By the insertion of the words "the third paragraph thereof, and by the omission of," after the word "of," in line 21.

By the insertion of the words "in the last paragraph of the said section," after the word "month," in line 22.

Mr. J. A. MILLAR, in Committee, to move the following new clause:—

Any person or persons who shall permit any female under the age of twenty-one years to live in or use any house or premises for the purpose of earning money or otherwise by prostitution shall be guilty of an indictable offence, and upon conviction shall be liable to imprisonment for any term not exceeding twelve months.
