

SUPPLEMENTARY ORDER PAPER.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

Wednesday, the 23rd day of July, 1890.

PATEA HARBOUR BILL.

Hon. Mr. MITCHELSON, in Committee, to move the following new clause:—

4. Any mortgages, debentures, or other securities heretofore given by the Board in respect of the said sum of ten thousand pounds, or any part thereof, and still in force or unpaid, shall, so far as regards the land, moneys, or other property thereby pledged, have priority over any debenture, mortgage, or other security given under this Act; and no part of the loan hereby authorised shall be redeemed or redeemable so long as any mortgage, debenture, or other security given in respect of the said sum of ten thousand pounds, or any part thereof, is unpaid.

EDUCATIONAL RESERVES LEASING BILL.

Hon. Mr. HISLOP, in Committee, to move the following additional clause:—

Leases of bush lands.

5. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any Act other than this Act, any rural lands for the most part covered with bush, which have been reserved, or vested in, or granted to any Educational Board, School Commissioners, Trustees, or other body of persons for education purposes, or as endowments for primary or secondary education, or for any high school, may be leased for any period not exceeding thirty years, subject in all cases to the provisions of any Act authorising the leasing of education reserves; and any lease of such lands already granted may be extended for thirty years from the date when such lease was originally granted, subject as aforesaid, and upon such terms as the lessors of such lands respectively shall think fair.

FACTORIES AND SHOPS BILL.

Mr. W. P. REEVES, in Committee, to move the following amendments:—

Clause 3. To strike out the whole clause.

Clause 4. Line 32: Under the definition of "closed," after the word "longer," to insert the words "sold or."

Line 33, same clause: To strike out the word "or," and insert the words "sitting with or without."

Line 2, same clause: To strike out the word "six," and insert "three."

Line 44, same clause: To insert "Newspaper means any paper containing public news, intelligence, or occurrences, or any remarks or observations therein, printed for sale and published in New Zealand periodically or in parts or numbers at intervals not exceeding twenty-six days between the publication of any two such papers, parts, or numbers."

Clause 5. Line 50: To strike out the words in parenthesis.

At end of clause 6:—

The Inspector so appointed shall be a person selected by the Trade and Labour Council out of six names to be submitted by the Minister; or, if the Trade and Labour Council shall fail to make a selection within seven days, the Minister shall recommend to the Government any of the six persons for appointment as Inspector.

Clause 10. Line 48: After the word "Inspector," to insert "and on the Board."

Clause 11. To add the words "unless a written objection shall have been served upon the Inspector by the Board."

Clause 15. Line 52: To strike out the words "in which he has reasonable cause to apprehend any serious obstruction in the execution of his duty."

Clause 17. Line 33: To strike out the word "wilfully."

Clause 18. Line 48: Before the words "a factory or work-room" to insert "or about."

Clause 22. To add subsections—

(c.) The official address of the Board;

(d.) The working hours of the factory and holidays.

Clause 35. Strike out proviso, lines 1 to 5 inclusive.

New clause after 46,—

47. Where females and males are employed in the same factory separate work-rooms shall be provided for each sex: Provided always that when it appears to the Minister, after due inquiry, that the exigencies of trade require the suspension or modification of the provisions of this section, he may suspend or modify the same.

Clause 50. Line 44: Strike out the words after "headmaster of" down to end, and substitute "any public or private school that such person attended school for such number of school-days in each quarter for a period of three consecutive years as the Inspector shall deem satisfactory."

Clause 55. Strike out.

CORONERS' INQUESTS BILL.

Major STEWARD, in Committee, to move the addition of the following new clause:—

4. Section four of "The Coroners Act Amendment Act, 1888," is hereby repealed, and in lieu thereof it is enacted as follows: Notwithstanding anything contained in "The Coroners Act, 1867," or in section one hundred and thirty-six of "The Licensing Act, 1881," no holder of a publican's license shall be required to receive any dead body for the purpose of an inquest being held thereon if there shall be a public morgue situated within two miles of his licensed premises.
