

SUPPLEMENTARY ORDER PAPER.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

Monday, the 30th Day of October, 1905.

CIVIL SERVICE SUPERANNUATION BILL.

Hon. Sir J. G. WARD, in Committee, to move the following amendments:—

Clause 2: In the definition of "Civil Service," insert, after the word "includes," the words "the legislative branch and"; in the definition of "Service," omit "from the date of last appointment to" and insert "in."

Clauses 18, 19, and 24: After the words "section nine," insert the words "or ten."

To add the following new clauses:—

Service of contributors transferred from Railway Department.

31A. Where, prior to the passing of this Act, any contributor has been transferred from the Government Railways Department or from the service of the New Zealand Railway Commissioners to the Civil Service, and has served continuously in that Department or service and the Civil Service, then, for the purpose of computing his retiring-allowance, such service shall be deemed to be service within the meaning of this Act.

31B. Where, prior to the passing of this Act, any contributor has been transferred from the Civil Service to the service of the New Zealand Railway Commissioners or to the Government Railway Department, and has served continuously in the Civil Service and that service or Department, then, for the purpose of computing his retiring-allowance, such service shall be deemed to be service in the Department within the meaning of "The Government Railways Superannuation Fund Act, 1902."

31c. Any contributor to the Police Provident Fund, the Government Railways Superannuation Fund, or the Civil Service Superannuation Fund whose service has not been continuous, but who has not been out of the service more than once, and who has not received any payment by way of pension, compensation, or otherwise in respect of his last previous service, shall be entitled to count such last previous service in the computation of his retiring-allowance.

Section 35: To omit subclause (4), and to insert in lieu thereof:—

Provided further that, in consideration of the company paying into the fund by way of subsidy the sum of one thousand pounds per annum for a period of five years, the benefits accruing to any person in the employ of the company at the date of coming into operation of this Act, and who pays contributions as from the date prescribed in the last preceding clause, shall be computed on his full period of continuous service with the company.
