

SUPPLEMENTARY ORDER PAPER.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

Thursday, the 6th Day of September, 1894.

Sir ROBERT STOUT to move, when the report of the Managers of the Conference on the Gaming Bill is presented,—

That a message be sent to the Legislative Council stating that, if the amendment made in the Bill (clause 7) be not insisted on, this House would agree to the following new clause:—

If it be shown to the satisfaction of the Colonial Secretary that, at a representative meeting of the racing clubs of the colony, a scheme has been considered and approved by the representatives of at least one-half of the clubs which received licenses to use the totalisator during the preceding twelve months, then the Colonial Secretary may approve such scheme and issue licenses in accordance therewith, as provided by section forty-six of "The Gaming and Lotteries Act, 1881," and by section six of this Act.
