

SUPPLEMENTARY ORDER PAPER.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

Friday, the 19th Day of October, 1906.

EDUCATION ACT AMENDMENT BILL.

Mr. FLATMAN, for Mr. Guinness, in Committee, to move the following new clauses:—

School children to travel free on railways. A. That all pupils attending Government and private secondary schools shall be entitled to travel free of charge in going to and returning from school by railway, subject to such regulations as may be made in this behalf by the Minister for Railways.

Teachers in certain schools to travel free on railways. B. That all teachers in the Government or private primary or secondary schools who travel from their residence to and from school where they are engaged teaching shall be entitled to travel free upon the railway, subject to such regulations as may be made in this behalf by the Minister for Railways.

Uniform set of school-books to be used in all primary schools. C. That one set of school-books shall be prepared and issued by the Minister for use in all primary schools.