EDUCATION AMENDMENT BILL.

Mr. FRASER, in Committee, to move that a new clause be added, to read—

A. (1.) In addition to the appeals provided for in Part XI of the principal Act, any teacher may appeal to the Teachers' Court of Appeal who, having been an applicant for a position which an Education Board is required to advertise, has not been appointed to such position, and is at least as high on the graded list as the teacher appointed :

Provided, however, that there shall be no right of appeal against the appointment of a teacher who has been preferred under subsection nine of section seventy-one of the principal Act.

(2.) The right of appeal conferred by subsection one of this section shall be available against the appointment of any teacher of the class referred to in paragraph (a) of subsection three of the said section seventy-one, notwithstanding the provisions of subsection two of section eight of the Education Amendment Act, 1921-22.

(3.) An appeal under this section against non-appointment to a position may be made in the prescribed manner within twenty-one days after the teacher has received notice that the position has been filled.

(4.) If upon an appeal under this section the Teachers' Court of Appeal shall decide that the appellant ought to be appointed to the position, he shall be entitled to be and shall be so appointed, and the appointment previously made by the Board shall become void.

(5.) The provisions of Part XI of the principal Act shall apply to appeals under this section, except where the same are inconsistent with the provisions of this section. For the purposes of any such appeal the district referred to in section one hundred and forty-eight of the principal Act shall be the district in which the position in question is situate.
