Employment Relations Bill

Proposed amendments

Stephen Franks, in Committee, to move the following amendments:

Clause 68

To omit subclause (1)(b)(ii), and substitute the following subparagraph:

- (ii) who choose through written declaration to be covered by the collective agreement.

To omit subclause (2), and substitute the following subclause:

- (2) If the registration of a union that is a party to a collective agreement is cancelled, the collective agreement shall expire on the date on which that union's registration is cancelled. The terms and conditions of that cancelled collective agreement become the terms and conditions of individual agreements applying to the former union's members until such time as those conditions are replaced by a new negotiated individual or collective agreement.
