FISHERIES ENCOURAGEMENT BILL.

Sir J. VOGEL, in Committee, to move the following new clauses:—

The Governor may, by Order in Council, from time to time prohibit the exportation from the colony of any fish caught or produced in the waters of the colony. Any such order may be made in respect of any particular kind of fish as defined by this Act, or may be made in respect of all fish so defined.

If any fish so prohibited to be exported shall be exported, or found on board of any ship, or be brought to any place to be shipped for exportation from the colony, they shall be forfeited; and any person offending against the provisions of this section, or any Order in Council issued in pursuance thereof, shall, for every such offence, be liable to a penalty of £100, to be recovered in a summary way.

All fish declared liable to forfeiture by this Act may be seized by any officer of Customs in the manner prescribed by "The Customs Laws Consolidation Act, 1882," and may be sold or otherwise disposed of as by that Act is provided in the case of the seizure of uncustomed or prohibited goods.
