

SUPPLEMENTARY ORDER PAPER.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

Wednesday, the 16th Day of September, 1896.

GOVERNMENT LOANS TO LOCAL BODIES ACT AMENDMENT BILL.

Mr. BELL, in Committee, to move the following new clause:—

11. It shall not be lawful hereafter to create stock or issue debentures under "The Consolidated Stock Act, 1884," or any amendment thereof, to the amount of or against the annual payments to the sinking fund created by "The Government Loans to Local Bodies Act Amendment Act, 1892," or the annual increases of such sinking fund. Nor shall any part of such sinking fund be deemed to be set free upon the conversion into stock of any loan raised under the provisions of the principal Act or any amendment thereof.

SHOPS AND SHOP-ASSISTANTS ACT AMENDMENT BILL.

Mr. J. W. KELLY, in Committee, to move the following new clause:—

The provisions of the principal Act shall not apply to the delivery of goods by carriers under contract with the Minister for Railways.

GOVERNMENT LOANS TO LOCAL BODIES ACT 1886 AMENDMENT BILL.

Mr. HEKE, in Committee, to move the following new clause:—

After the passing of this Act, nothing in the principal Act or any enactments amending the same shall authorise any local body or any person appointed by them to act on their behalf to levy any special rates on any land owned by Natives whatsoever: Provided that this section shall not operate to exclude any land from being specially rated where the Native owner or owners of such land have been granted by law the exclusive rights and privileges to his or their lands as those enjoyed by Her Majesty's European subjects residing in this colony.
