

AMENDED
SUPPLEMENTARY ORDER PAPER.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

Wednesday, the 21st Day of September, 1904.

LICENSING ACTS AMENDMENT BILL.

Mr. REID, in Committee, to move the following new clause:—

A. Subsection five of section twenty-two of the Amendment Act of 1895 is hereby amended by adding thereto the following paragraph:—

(e.) If required by the licensee a traveller shall sign a declaration in the form set forth in the Sixth Schedule hereto, and such forms shall be procurable free of charge by licensees from Inspectors of Police throughout the colony, and shall be kept by licensees for the purpose aforesaid.

SIXTH SCHEDULE.

I, _____, residing at _____, do hereby declare that I am a bond fide traveller within the meaning of "The Licensing Act, 1904," that I am three miles from the place where I have slept, and that since my arrival at _____ I have not been served with liquor.

Given under my hand, this _____ day of _____, 190 .
.....