Friday, the 11th Day of November, 1910.

LICENSING AMENDMENT BILL.

Mr. WRIGHT, in Committee, to move the following new clause:—

A. (1.) Every person not being licensed so to do found selling or offering for sale liquor in any street or public place may be arrested by any constable without warrant. The constable arresting any such person shall forthwith bring him before a Justice of the Peace, and such Justice, upon the information upon oath of the constable or of any reputable person, and upon being satisfied that there is reasonable ground to believe that such person was selling or offering for sale liquor in any street or public place, may, in his discretion, issue his warrant under section fifty-six of the Justices of the Peace Act, 1908, for apprehending such person and bringing him before some Justice to answer the information, and to be further dealt with according to law.

(2.) Any person offering liquor for sale in any street or public place shall be deemed to be guilty of the offence of selling liquor without a license.
