Wednesday, the 31st Day of August, 1892.

LAND BILL.

Mr. G. HUTCHISON, when in Committee, to move the following as an additional paragraph to clause 152:—

Any lessee in perpetuity may, so soon as he has completed the improvements required by his lease, apply to the Commissioner for a grant of the freehold of the land comprised in the lease; and, if the lessee shall have complied with all the conditions of his lease up to the date of such application, and shall pay the capital value of the land, he shall be entitled forthwith to a Crown grant of the land leased to him.
