

SUPPLEMENTARY ORDER PAPER.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

Friday, the 18th Day of October, 1912.

LAND LAWS AMENDMENT BILL.

Mr. WILFORD, in Committee, to move the following amendments:—

Clause 201: To omit this clause, and insert the following in lieu thereof:—

201. (1.) It shall not be lawful for any person to become the purchaser of any area of land which is or was at any time held under lease in perpetuity if such land, together with all other land of any description owned, held, or occupied by him, under any tenure, whether in severalty or jointly with any person, exceeds a total area of three thousand acres, calculated in the manner provided by section ninety-seven of the principal Act.

(2.) It shall not be lawful for any person who holds any estate or interest in any piece of land which is or was at any time held under lease in perpetuity to acquire any estate or interest in any other piece of land which is or was at any time held under lease in perpetuity.

(3.) The provisions of sections three hundred and forty-two to three hundred and forty-seven of the principal Act shall, mutatis mutandis, apply to the several limitations and prohibitions contained in this section, the words "this section" being read for the words "this Part of this Act" wherever they occur in the said sections.

(4.) Every document of title issued by the District Land Registrar in respect of any purchase of land in fee-simple which was theretofore held under lease in perpetuity shall contain a notification that the land is subject to the restriction contained in this section.

Clause 32: To omit the word "settlement" in line 2, and insert after the word "land" the words "which is or was at any time settlement land."

To insert the following new subclause,—

(4.) Every document of title issued by the District Land Registrar for land affected by this section shall contain a notification that the land is subject to the restriction contained in this section.
