

SUPPLEMENTARY ORDER PAPER.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

Thursday, the 21st Day of September, 1905.

LAND TENURE AND SETTLEMENT.

Hon. Sir W. J. STEWARD to move in the House, upon the further consideration of the land resolutions of the Rt. Hon. R. J. Seddon, to amend the addition to be proposed by the honourable member for Ellesmere by inserting next after the words "That all lessees under lease in perpetuity should have the right to" the words "pay off part of the original value, either by instalments or otherwise."

Also, if the foregoing words be so inserted, then to move to add the following, namely: "Each such instalment to be £10 or a multiple of £10, and thereafter the rent to be reduced proportionately."

Also, if the foregoing be so inserted, then to move to add the following, namely: "Provided that the total amount so paid off may not exceed 90 per cent. of the original value."
