Clause 93

To omit from new section 22(1A) the words “or the competitor’s rights to privacy and natural justice” (lines 19 and 20 on page 51).

---

Explanatory note

The amendment to clause 52 aligns its heading with the heading of the section it amends.

The amendment to clause 80(2) alters the commencement of clause 82 from 1 July 2000 to 1 January 2001.

The amendment to clause 83 alters the commencement of Part 24 from 1 October 2000 to a date to be appointed by Order in Council.

The amendment to clause 89 amends new section 16E of the New Zealand Sports Drug Agency Act 1994. The amendment omits the references in paragraphs (d) and (e) to the competitor’s rights to privacy and natural justice. The effect of the amendment is that the Board must determine that a doping infraction has not been committed if it is satisfied that a failure by the Agency or the laboratory to comply with a requirement of the Act or the regulations compromised the identity or integrity of the sample or the reliability of the test result. Whether the failure compromised the competitor’s rights to privacy and natural justice is not a matter to be considered.

The amendment to clause 93 amends new section 22(1A) of the New Zealand Sports Drug Agency Act 1994. The effect of the amendment is that the District Court is precluded from quashing a positive determination if it is satisfied that the failure to comply with the requirements of the Act or the regulations did not compromise the identity or integrity of the sample or the reliability of the test result.
