

SUPPLEMENTARY ORDER PAPER.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

Wednesday, the 26th Day of August, 1903.

SUPREME COURT JUDGES BILL.

Mr. Moss to move, That it be an instruction to the Committee on the Supreme Court Judges Bill to consider the following new clause :—

Power to grant rehearing of cases decided in High Court of Cook Islands.

4. Any person feeling aggrieved by any decision or judgment of the High Court of the Cook Islands given in any civil or criminal case before the first day of May, one thousand nine hundred and two, may on or before the first day of March, one thousand nine hundred and four, apply to the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of New Zealand for a rehearing of the case in which such decision or judgment was given, and such Chief Justice may grant a rehearing in the Supreme Court of New Zealand, at such place, and before such Judge, and on such terms as to him shall seem fit; and no applicant shall be entitled to claim or receive any of the costs or expenses of such rehearing, or have any claim against His Majesty the King for any imprisonment or injury incurred through such decision or judgment of the said High Court should the same be reversed.
