

SUPPLEMENTARY ORDER PAPER.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

Thursday, the 26th Day of October, 1905.

TEACHERS' SUPERANNUATION BILL.

Amendment proposed by His Excellency the Governor.

To insert the following new clause:—

Rights of contributor who is in Civil Service.

20AA. In the case of every contributor who is a member of the Civil Service the following special provisions shall apply:—

- (a.) His rights, whether absolute or contingent, under "The Civil Service Act, 1866," or its amendments, as regards claims for compensation or allowance for loss of office, or otherwise in respect thereof, shall be and the same are hereby preserved up to the date of the coming into operation of this Act, from which date such rights shall cease to further accrue; and his compensation or allowance (if any) shall be calculated only on the basis of his employment in the Civil Service up to the date of the coming into operation of this Act.
- (b.) He shall not be required to effect a policy on his life under "The Civil Service Insurance Act, 1893," nor shall any deduction from his salary be made under that Act.
- (c.) He may on his retirement, or at any time before receiving his first instalment, elect to accept a sum equal to the total amount of his contributions to the fund, together with the compensation (if any) to which he is entitled under section twelve of "The Civil Service Act, 1866," or section sixteen of "The Civil Service Insurance Act, 1893," or the amount (if any) standing to his credit under the last preceding section hereof, as the case may be, in lieu of his retiring-allowance under this Act, in which case he shall be entitled to receive such sum in lieu of such retiring-allowance.
- (d.) If, not having so elected, he dies before the total amount paid to him in respect of retiring-allowance is equal to the total amount of his contributions to the fund together with the compensation (if any) to which he is entitled under section twelve of "The Civil Service Act, 1866," or section sixteen of "The Civil Service Insurance Act, 1893," or the amount (if any) standing to his credit under the last preceding section hereof, as the case may be, the Board shall apply for the benefit of his widow and children or legal representatives the difference between the aforesaid amounts.
