c. 39.

AN ACT to remove Doubts as to the Lands and Casual Revenues of the Crown in the Colonies and Foreign Possessions of Her Majesty. [30th June, 1852.]

* * * * *

1. The provisions of the said recited Acts¹ in relation to the hereditary casual revenues of the Crown shall not extend, or be deemed to have extended, to the moneys arising from the sale or other disposition of the lands of the Crown in any of Her Recited provisions not to be deemed to have extended to the produce of the sale of lands in the said colonies.

¹ 1 Will. IV., c. 25, s. 2, and 1 Vict., c. 2, s. 2.

Majesty's colonies or foreign possessions, nor in anywise invalidate or affect any sale or other disposition already made or hereafter to be made of such lands, or any appropriation of the moneys arising from any such sale or other disposition which might have been lawfully made if such Acts or either of them had not been passed.

Provisions not to prevent the appropriation of casual revenues in the colonies to colonial purposes.

2. Nothing in the said recited Acts contained shall extend or be deemed to have extended to prevent any appropriation which, if the said Acts had not been passed, might have been lawfully made, by or with the assent of the Crown, of any casual revenues arising within the colonies or foreign possessions of the Crown (other than droits of the Crown and droits of Admiralty), for or towards any public purposes within the colonies or possessions in which the same respectively may have arisen :

Provided always that the surplus not applied to such public purposes of such hereditary casual revenues shall be carried to and form part of the said Consolidated Fund.
