An ACT to promote the Safety of Persons travelling on Public Roads. Title.

[Assented to May 25th, 1871.]

BE it enacted by the Superintendent of the Province of Nelson, Preamble.
with the advice and consent of the Provincial Council thereof:

1. If the driver of any cart, dray, or other carriage shall ride thereupon (not having some person on foot to guide the same), such carriages as are drawn by horses and properly driven with reins only excepted, or shall wilfully remain at such a distance from his carriage whilst passing along any public street or road as not to have the command of his horse, horses, or cattle, or, meeting any other carriage, shall not keep his carriage on the left or near side of the road, or, in passing, shall not keep on the right or off-side of the road, or shall in any manner wilfully prevent any other person from passing him, or, by negligence or misbehaviour, interrupt the free passage of any person or carriage along any public street or road, he shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Two Pounds.

Penalty for Riding upon Carriages without Reins, and obstructing Passage, &c.

2. Any

Penalty for Furious
Riding, &c.

2. Any person who shall ride or drive through or along any public street or road so as to endanger the limbs or lives of other persons, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Five Pounds.
